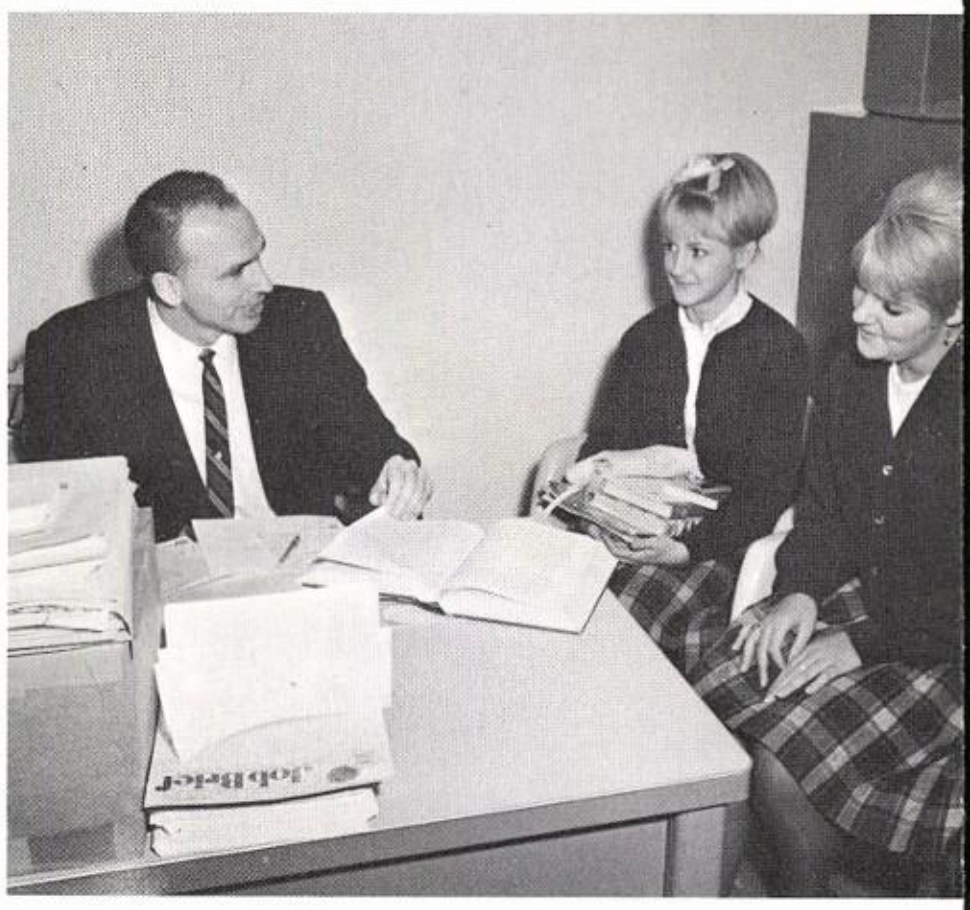
THE REFLECTIONS OF A STUDENT

OUR ADMINISTRATION KNOWS WELL

Brother Athanasius has made it a policy to know personally each member of Gabriels High School. His loyalty and enthusiasm have earned the respect and admiration of the entire student body.

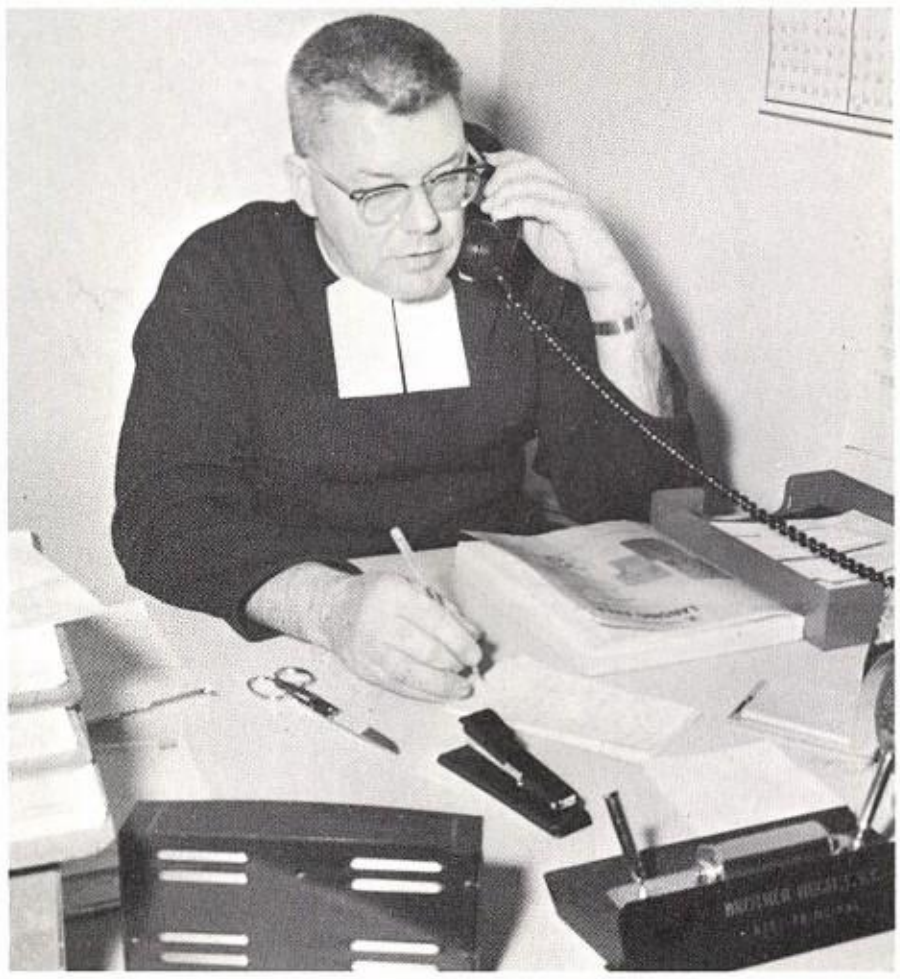
Ably assisting him are; Brother Hugh and Sister Marie Doloretta, assistant principals, Father Sears, religious advisor, and Mr. Jastrab, guidance counselor. Brother Athanasius, with his administration serve the needs of a grateful student body.

". . .And what can I do for you?" is the phrase so often heard as a student approaches our principal, Brother Athanasius.



Mr. Jastrab, guidance counselor, has done much to aid students in job placement, college problems, school and personal difficulties.

Brother Hugh, our "super-colossal" assistant principal, greets absentees and tardies as one of his better known duties.



THE STUDENT BODY IT GUIDES

The technical services of our school are handled through the work of Mr. Spedoske and Mrs. Steinbach.

Sister Marie Doloretta, girls' guidance director, is always available to assist in student problems.

Everywhere at Gabriels one finds opportunities for education. In the library, the laboratory, and on the athletic field one always finds the instructor ready and willing to give his time to help the student who is trying to learn. Our faculty and administration are well prepared, competent, and proficient in the use of principles and methods of teaching to induce the learning process.

To each of them is extended a thank you from those who have benefited from their knowledge and experience.

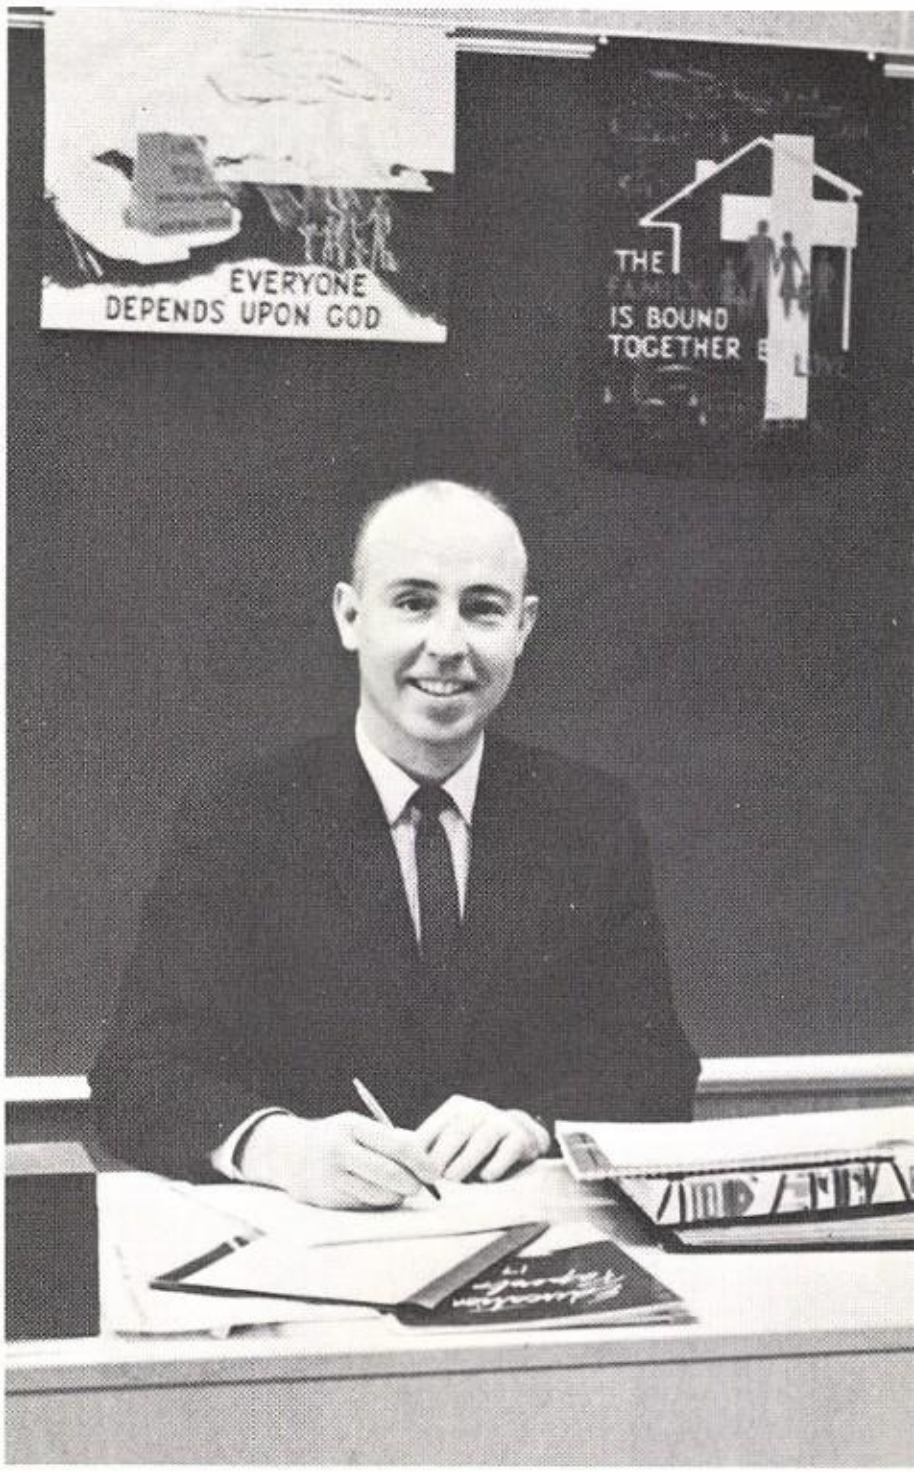
In overseeing the religious program of the school, Father Sears influences the spiritual lives of the students.

PERSPECTIVE—PAST AND PRESENT

Brother Francis, senior government teacher, came at the semester break and quickly became acquainted with his students.

History is the basis for understanding man and his past. Through the study of famous men, places, and events the excitement and drama of yesterday is recreated. The second year of the International relation has also extended the study of social science. This independent study program has received an overwhelming response from the upper classmen. These classes have succeeded in presenting the students with the past, to be remembered, the present, to be aware of, and the future, to look forward to.

Mr. Cook, head of the government department, brought many speakers in to make his subject both interesting and active.

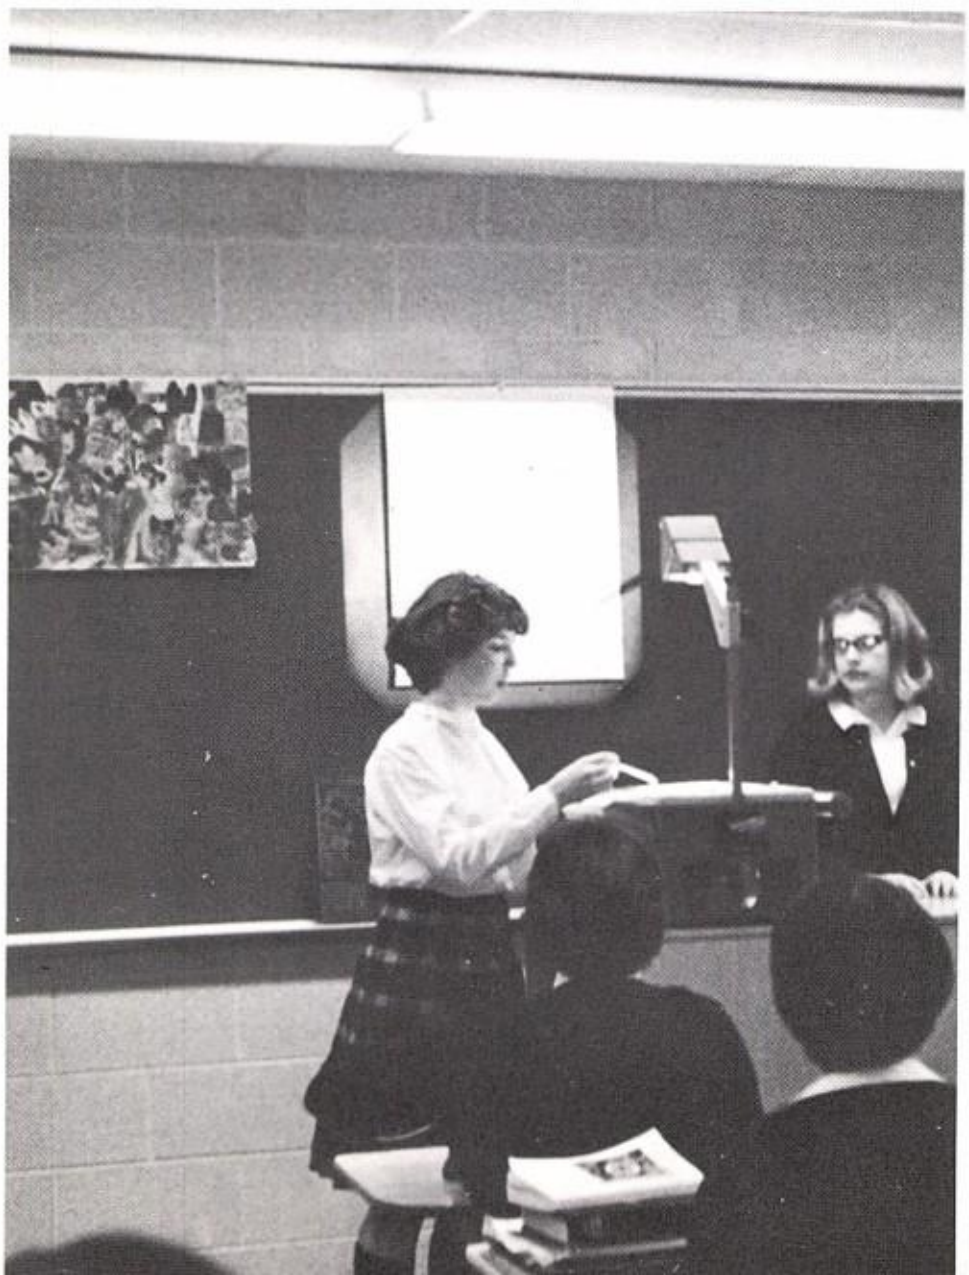


Re-enactment of a trial scene brought the history of law to life as the freshman jury confers on aspects of the case.

IN HUMAN RELATIONS

The Human Relations program established at Gabriels has proven to be of great benefit in widening the scope of education. Here, a representative from Korea introduces the music of her country.

Kathy Olance and Kim Braman make good use of the overhead projecture in presenting their depth study to Sister Thomas More's history class.



Mr. Lardner and Mr. Sambear, American and World History teachers, give the underclassmen much enrichment.

PRESENTATION AND REBUTTAL

Mary Jo Milam, sophomore, was one of the many students who participated in the forensic contest at Gabriels.

Debate is the art of persuasion. The debater is taught to influence his audience by means of pertinent evidence. Sister Rose Margaret, Gabriels' Debate Coach, prepares her students in the elements of logical argument.

This year's topic was "Resolved: That the Foreign Aid Program of the United States Should Be Limited to Non-Military Assistance." The pros and cons of this topic were explored thoroughly by the students.

Above, Sr. Rose Margaret gives some last minute pointers to varsity debaters, R. Steinbach, R. Meyers, S. Secor, and I. Henneman.

Officers of the Debate Club are: Pres., Steve Secor; Libr., M. Magistro; V. Pres., J. Broehler; Sec., L. Henneman.

At left, students who traveled to the Stratford Festival in Canada, found the performance of Henry V an enriching experience.

The purpose of English is to give the student a deeper appreciation and awareness of his culture through the study of literature. In correlation with the English courses this year, many Juniors and Seniors participated in an excursion to Stratford, Ontario to attend the world renowned Shakespearean festival and witness the stage production of Henry V. The trip, supervised by Sister Rita Mary, was acclaimed to be an invaluable educational experience.

At right, Sister Rita Mary, the head of the English department, is a senior advisor and English IV teacher.

The tradition of Roman representation is carried on through these Senators, elected by class members.

Sister Jean Margaret, head of the Latin department, carefully makes last minute adjustments before a J. C. L. performance.

Winners of the chariot races and Olympic games display their ribbons from the National Convention.

At right, members of the J.C.L. approach the entrance to Cumberland Gap, as one of the many stops on their summer trip.

Latin has been instrumental in laying the foundation for language and promoting interest of ancient Rome. This has been brought to life through the endeavors of the J. C. L. and Sister Jean Margaret. In early August, the Junior Classical League traveled to Bowling Green, Kentucky for the 13th National Convention. With eighty-three "J. C. L.'ers," and the National Treasurer, Jim McKouen, Gabriels gained added recognition for outstanding achievements.

Language is not a barrier at Gabriels. For the students who study French and Spanish, language is an opportunity as well as a challenge. With the aid of modern language facilities and versatile teachers, our students have opened new channels of communication. These lingual skills will be a definite asset to the students in future years.

The Spanish students have acquired new skills through the efforts of Senora Rood.

THE ART OF EXPRESSION

Madame Baylon, French teacher, is our newest addition to the language department.

Senora Morris aids students in operating the modern language facilities. Here, Nancy Olson, gets a little extra help.

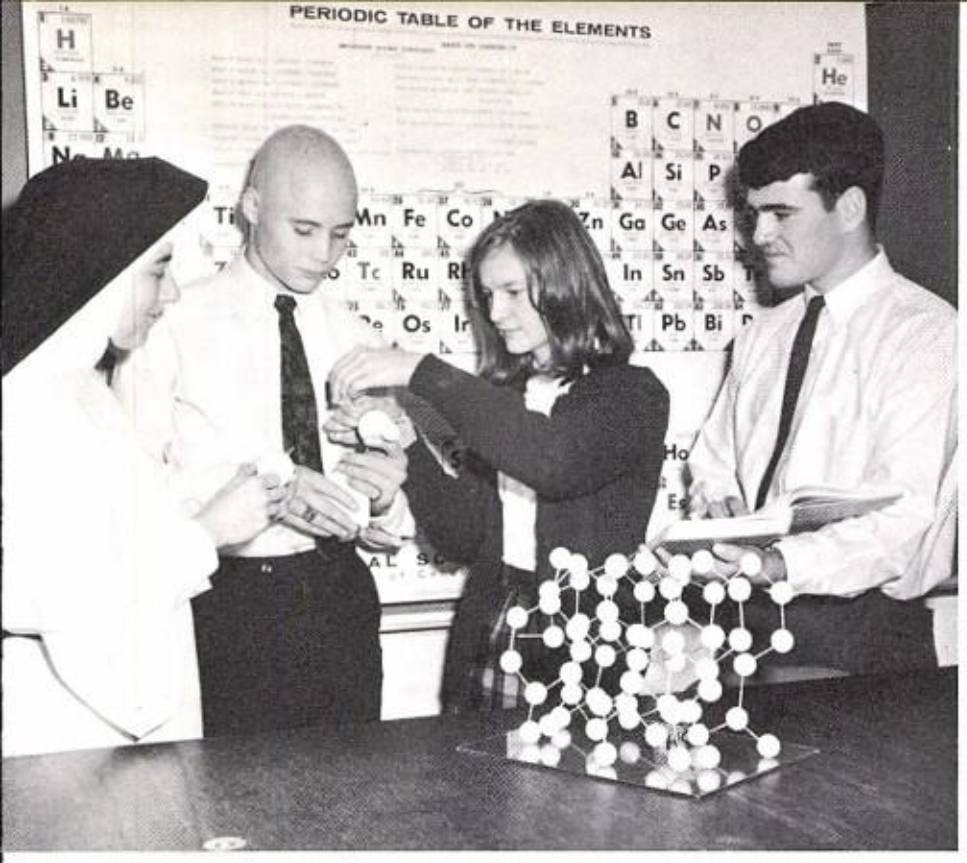
SCIENCES OF CURIOSITY AND EXPERIMENTATION

Mr. Harvey, Brother Boniface and Brother Charles supply the right formula for successful teaching.

Mathematics is not only a science but a means of attaining self-discipline, intellecual dexterity, and personal skill. Logical thinking is the key to the understanding of this science. The math department strives continually to prepare the student in the studies of Algebra, Geometry, and Modern Analysis. To impart knowledge and skill in using these basic principles is the constant aim of the mathematics department.

Sister Rose Margaret, head of the math department oversees the math program as M. Garrison works an equation after school hours.

Sister Loretta Jean aids H. Miller, B. Polack, and M. Charette on a difficult problem.

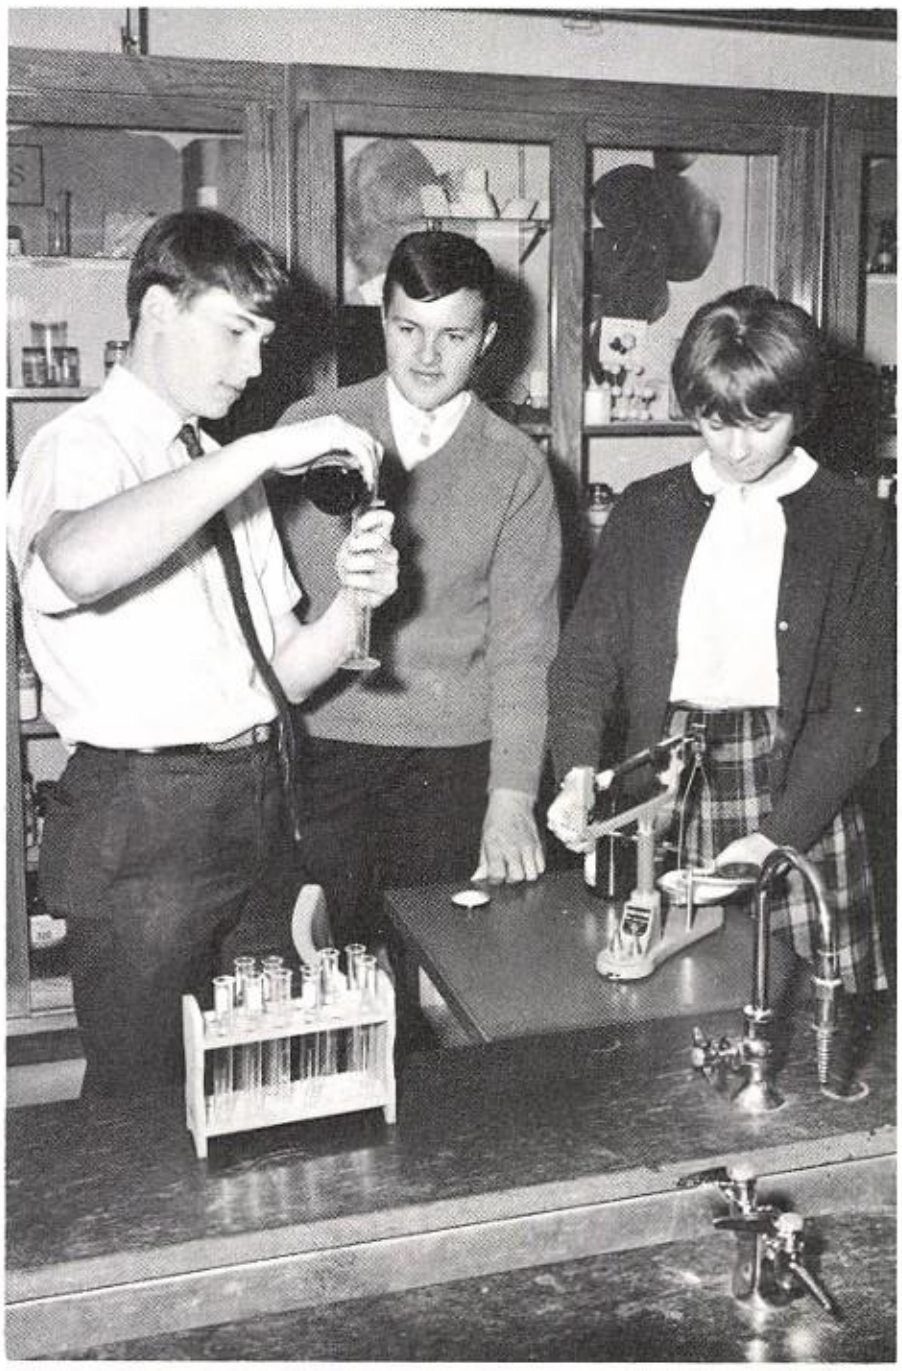


E. Reid, F. Dubendorf, and R. McCarius are supervised by our chemistry and physics teacher, Sister Andrew Joseph.

B. Morris, P. Lindemann, and J. Seymour experiment with modern equipment in the physics lab.

Curiosity and discovery have a significant relationship in the study of the sciences. With the help of modern equipment and experienced instructors, students have successfully completed credits in the areas of chemistry, physics and biology. Physical science was newly added to the curriculum this year. These studies explore in detail the scientific knowledge of all advancing society.

Sister Geraldine Marie, above, and Mr. Brooks instruct the students in the science of biology.

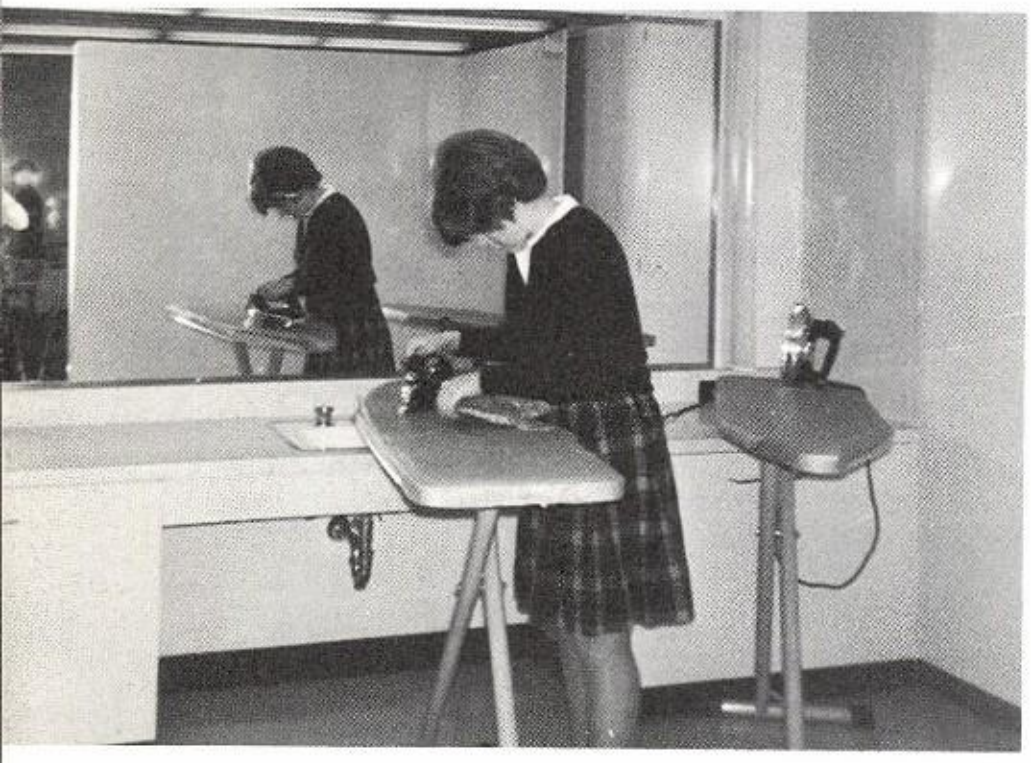


In the chemistry lab, A. Spata, M. Cain, and E. Wilberding combine some new chemical formulas.

HOMEMAKING: A CAREER

Today's women play an important role in the formation of tomorrow's world. This has been the aim of Sister John Martin, "to emphasize the importance of the woman in today's society." Throughout the year, the girls have worked diligently on the development of their domestic skills. The result of this conscientious effort is a more complete woman.

Linda Schaeffer finishes off her item for clothing, carefully pressing open the seams of her garment.



Juanita Juarez, pictured above, demonstrates that a skillful seamstress can display her talent in creating her own wardrobe.

Homemaking is one of the most useful subjects that can be undertaken by girls today. Sister John Martin aids these students in adequately developing their skills in preparation as future homemakers.

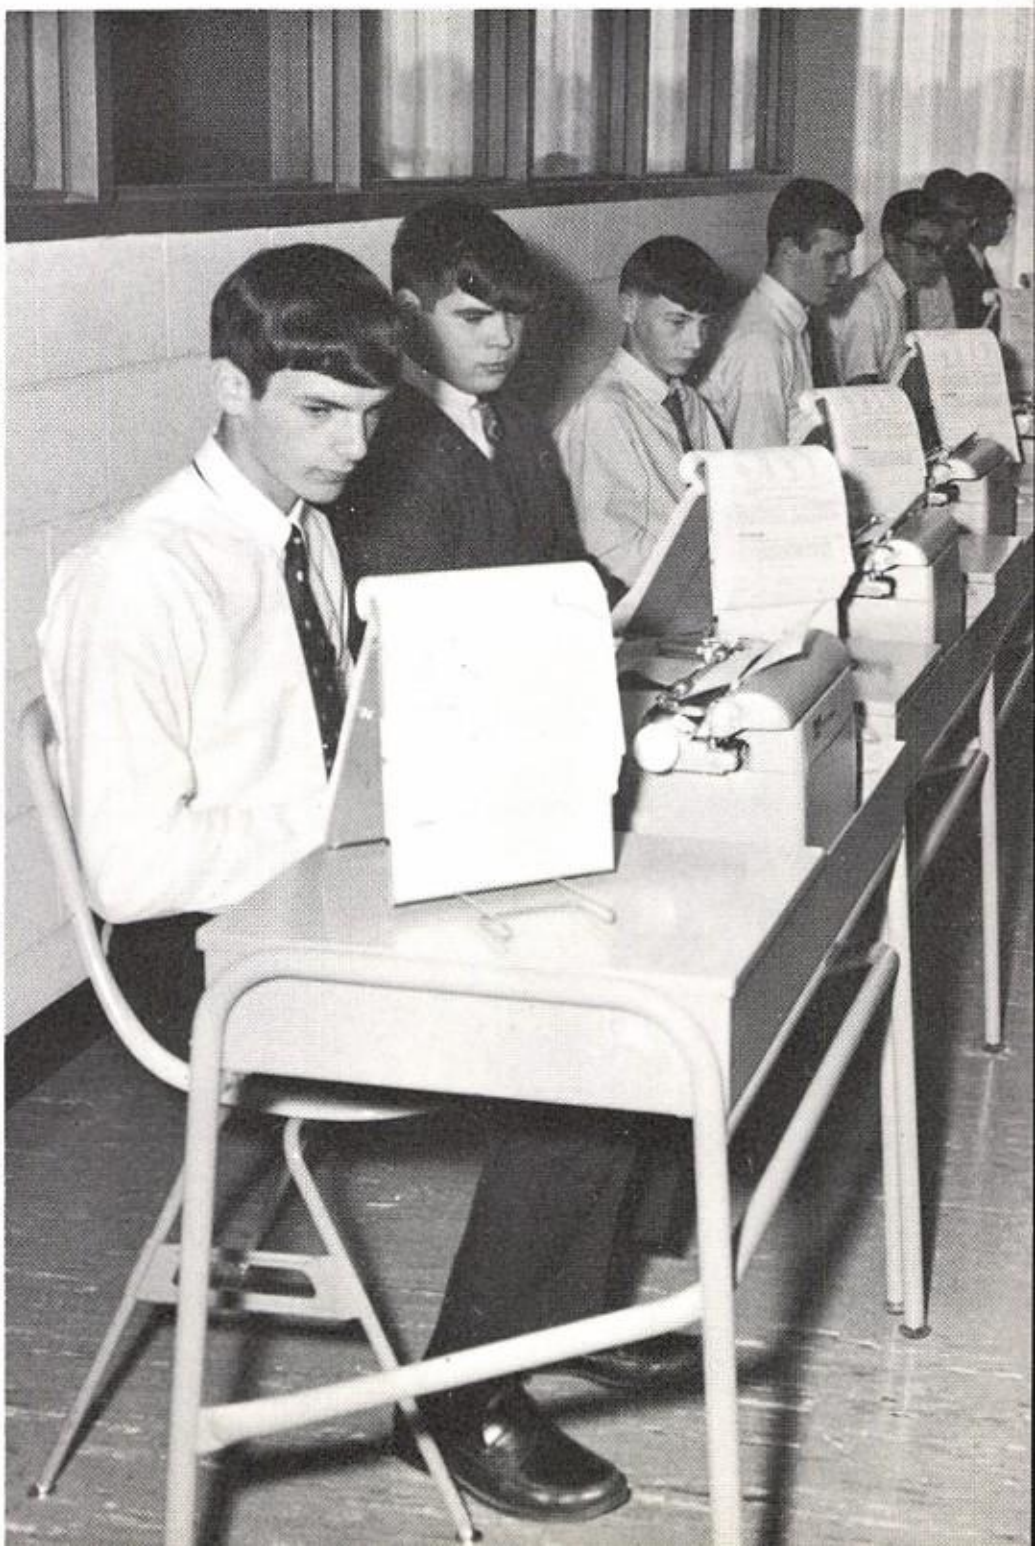
A GOAL AND A GUIDE

The understanding of business skills and the ability to master them can prove to be most rewarding. Gabriels prepares young people in the field of business through training in typing, shorthand, and general business. Courses in bookkeeping and office practice are designed to provide additional skills as needed by the students. Guided by the teaching staff, the students come to know the value of training for success in the business world.

President M. Wesley, seated, M. Pavona, K. Roblee, K. Droste, and T. Nastal as business club officers complete the year's agenda.

Teaching shorthand and typing I, Mrs. Hersey has become an added asset to the business department.

A necessary skill is developed as Mrs. Hart, head of the business department, gives a challenging assignment.



Not far from the real life of Gabriels, the day of noise, of confusion, of exams, of cafeteria, of challenges, is a quiet place as yet undiscovered by many Gabrielites. The chapel holds meaning for many and is that one place where it is good to be alone.

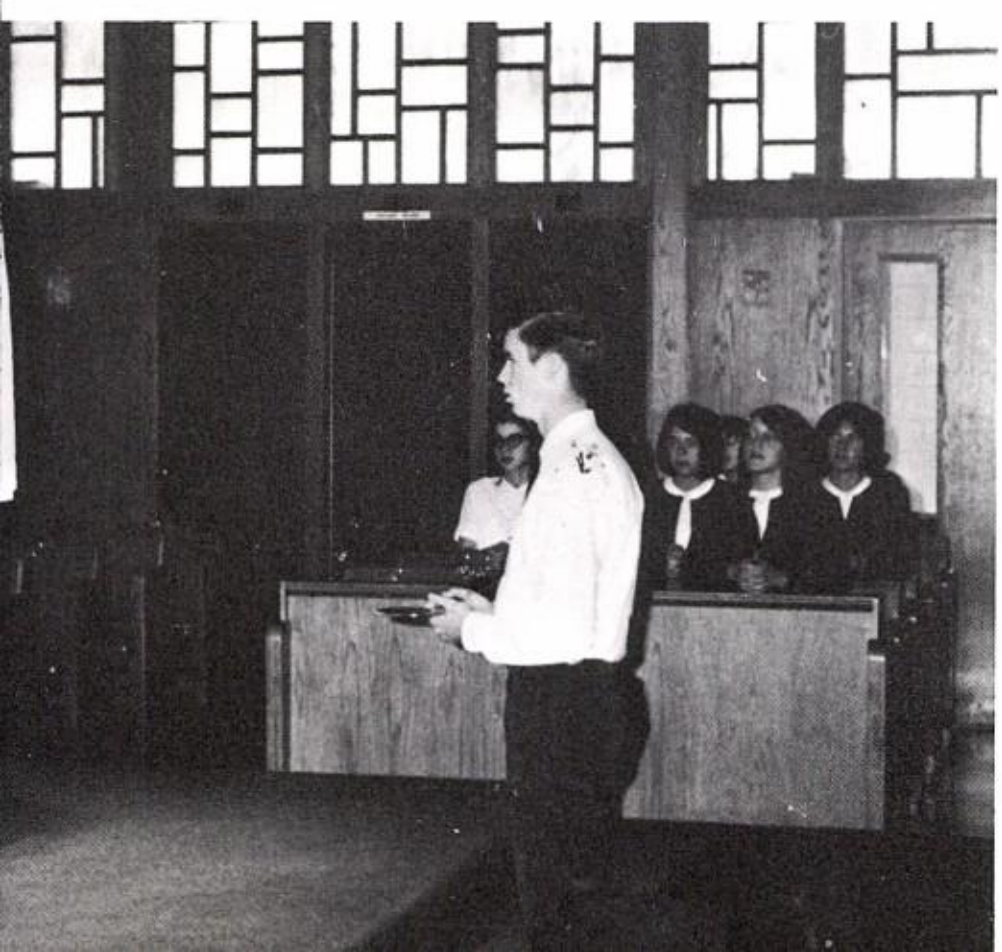
Father McKoen and Father O'Neill teach freshman and sophomore religion classes which are found to be meaningful and enjoyable.

TEENS

Father Sulka, Senior religion instructor, points out the worth of our text, "The Meaning of Success," to Rosemary Sutherland.

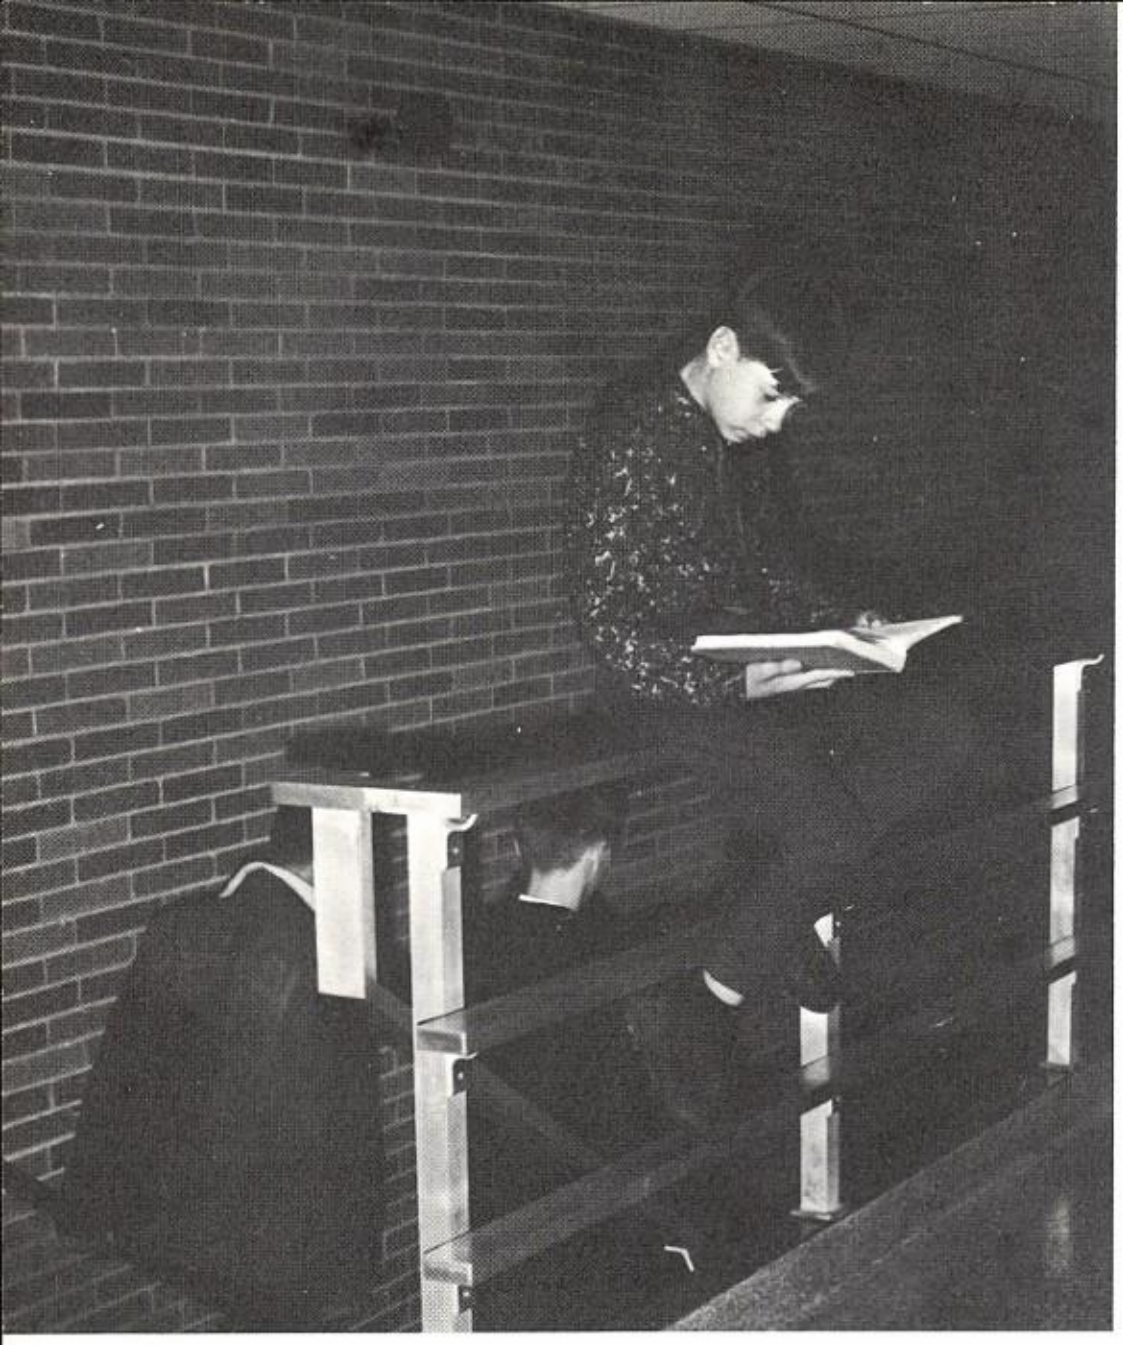
Mission Club officers are Pres., Steve Price; Vice-Pres., Darylann Ryan; Treas., Ron Meyer; Sec., Jane Skinner.

ENCOUNTER CHRIST



Mud-covered players spending that minute after the game to say thanks for another Shamrock victory: a desperate "HELP! Somebody up there, please!!" before that semester exam; knowing the value of that quiet expansive moment in which nothing is said yet so much is known; we have a "grandiose" Friend. Revised liturgy, and ecumenical changes mean less to us than a Christ that is really interested in what teens have to say. Through the Senior trips to T.E.C. many have come to love a Christ who can be seen in their own classmates. Days of Encounter give underclassmen a chance to pause and evaluate.

The distribution of noon Communion by Father Sears provides a daily meeting with Christ as a friend.



Dave Flositz pauses for a minute of review, a time for thought in those well used after school hours.

The early risers come to school at seven-thirty to take an art class taught by Mrs. Rood. Undoubtedly a very enjoyable extra, this class brings to the surface the many talents to be found in our student body.

THE TALENTS

Jim DiVietri and Mary Murphy are two of those who give their volunteer time to aid Sister Alberta in carrying out the many responsibilities necessary in managing our library to the best advantage of those who frequently use the facilities.

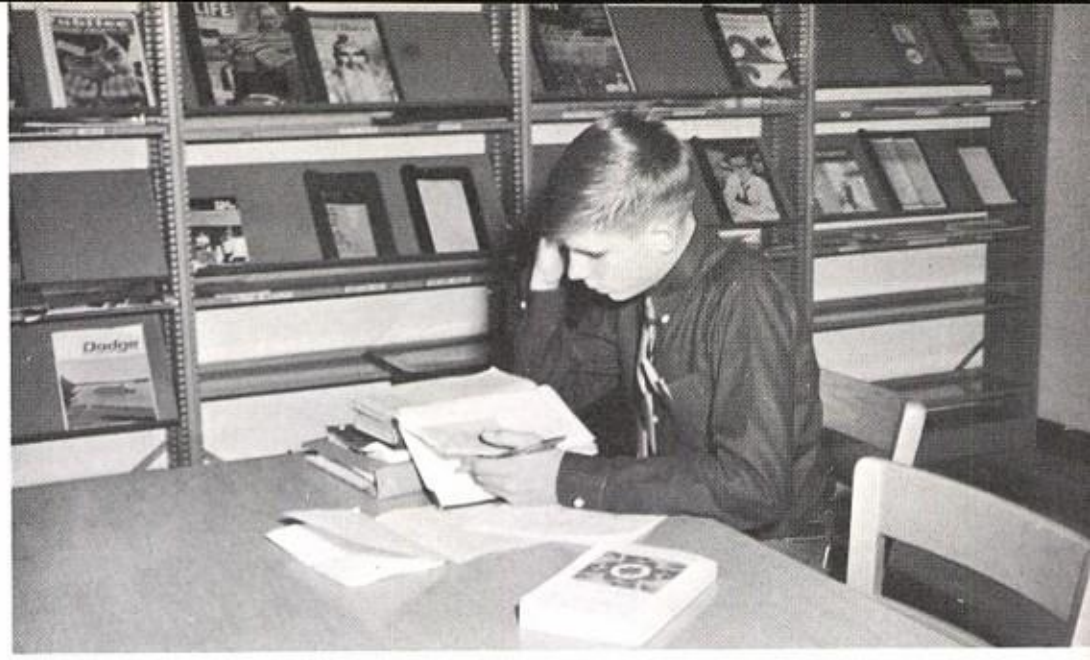
OF MAN

Art is the most personal expression of man's intimate feelings. The artist's sensitivity can convey and identify many aspects of man. Development of individual talents so abundant at Gabriels, has been the objective of this year's art classes. With the competent guidance of Mrs. Rood, the classes have covered various fundamentals of art. For these students, art is more than a development of a creative talent, it is an appreciation of the beauty apparent in the eye of the artist.

In the daily process of learning, the student appreciates a quiet hour for study. During this time, he can organize his thoughts, prepare new material, and plan for the next day.

At right, Louise Gaupel put the finishing touches on her chalk sketch of a fall scene as an art assignment.



John Leverette, freshman, makes use of the growing facilities available to all interested in depth study.

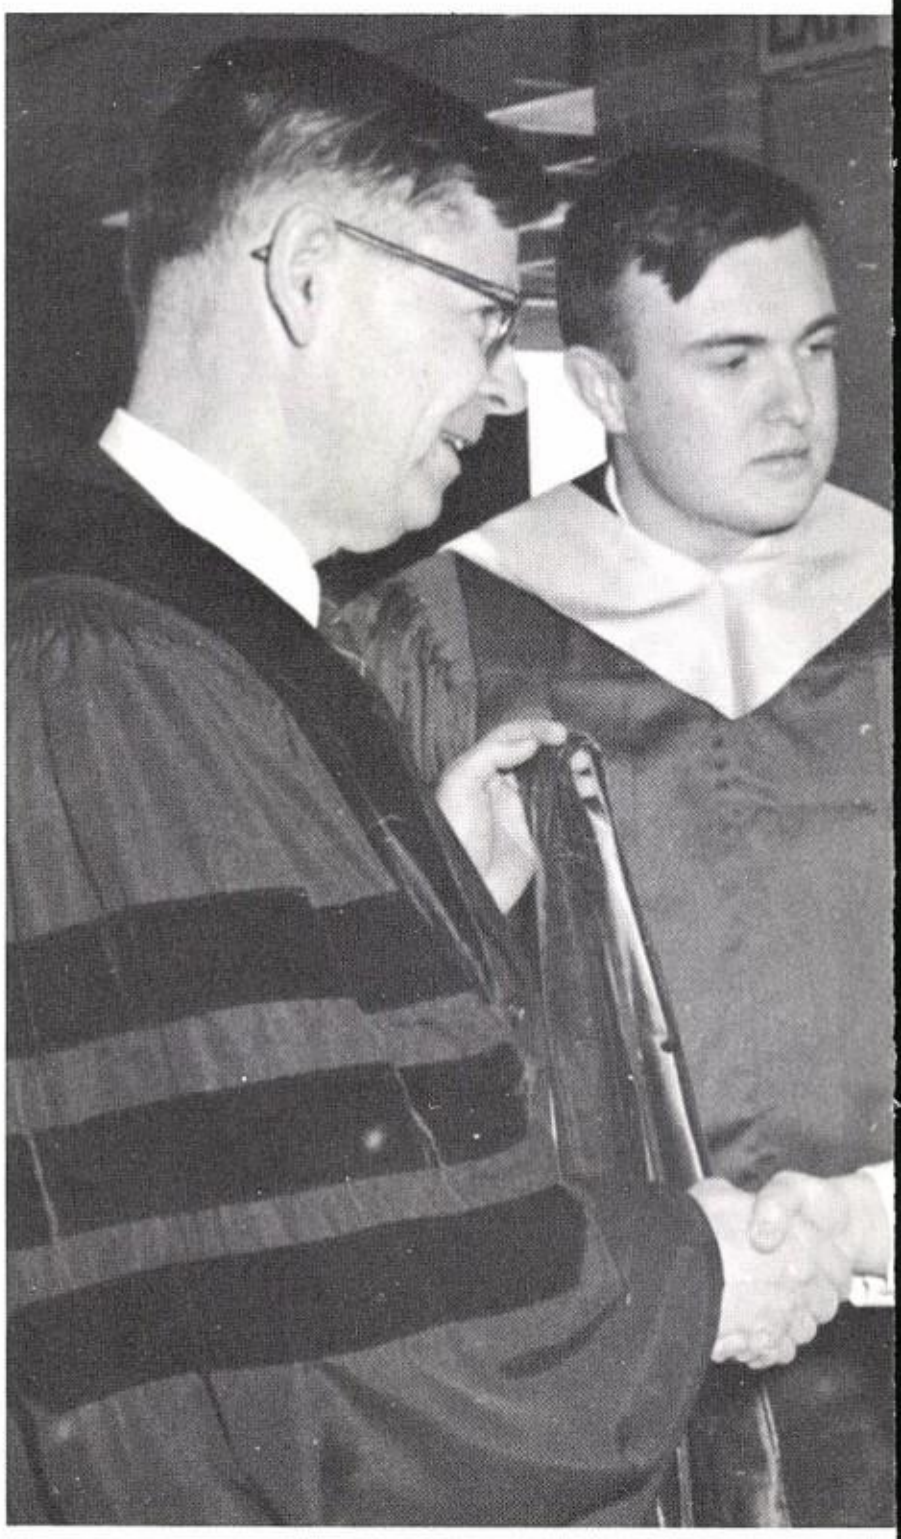
A PLACE OF HONOR

The National Honor Society induction ceremonies were held on March first with forty-five members receiving honors.

After the ceremonies parents and students went to the cafeteria for refreshments and a social.

There are four characteristics of a student; character, scholarship, leadership, and service. In fulfillment of these qualities, the National Honor Society recognizes worthy members each year through the induction ceremony. On this memorable day, new and old members proudly don a gold stole that distinguishes membership in the society. This year the N.H.S. has introduced monthly seminars, as well as supporting various school functions.

Doctor Gordon Sabine, Vice-President of Michigan State University was guest speaker. John Doneth, President of the N.H.S., acquaints him with various members of our faculty.



A SERVICE RENDERED

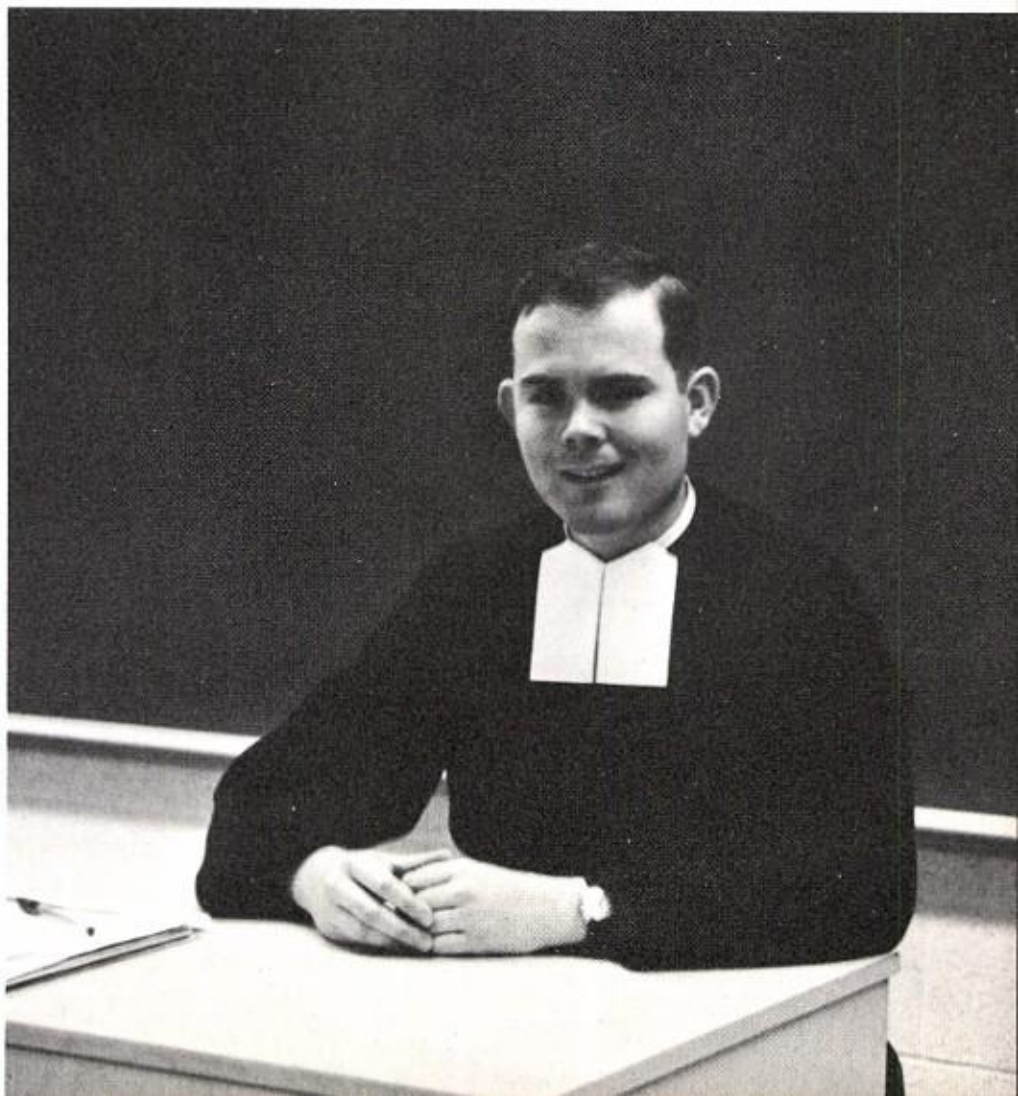
Operation "Snow Go" produced 125 willing hands to remove the excess snow left from the blizzard of '67.

The Student Council is an organization dedicated to the students of Gabriels High School. It is continually striving to provide better understanding between students and the faculty. Through this quest for leadership in school endeavors, the Student Council has sponsored such events as the Freshman orientation program and food for the needy at Christmas time.

As Student Council advisor, Brother Kevin has given new insights to student and student-faculty relations.



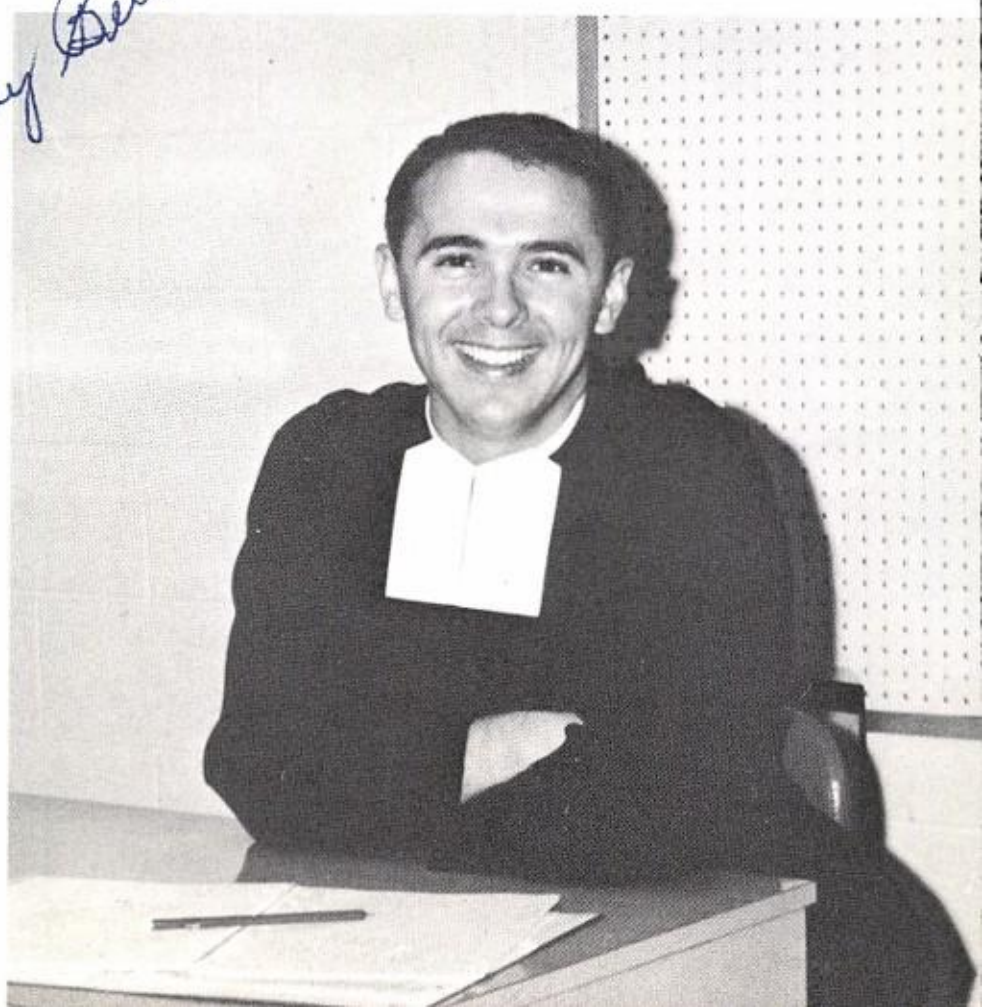
THE SOUNDS OF MUSIC

IN MEMORIAM

"He was the true light who enlightened everyman that came to him." To those who knew John he certainly met with this heavenly qualification. He always brought much laughter and happiness into the lives of his friends and contacts. A measure of inches don't make the man and although John Leshock was small in stature, no one will ever convince us that he wasn't already all that a man could ever be.

The newest addition to our music department at Gabriels, the Gleemen, have proven through outstanding performances that they enjoy giving their music to an appreciative audience. Having been a part of all music programs presented at Gabriels and various other places in the city, the Gleemen under the direction of Brother Jeffrey have been enthusiastically received by all.

Brother Jeffrey Berta, FSC



Judy Wright was chosen in state-wide competition to tour Europe this summer with a U. of M. youth singing group.

A robe of green is proudly worn by the members of the Choir who desire to develop their musical talents. Through Miss Klein's efforts two past musicals have been successfully produced, and another one, South Pacific, is planned for this year.

Miss Klein has devoted many hours of long hard work to make the Choir noted throughout the city.

MIGHTILY RESOUND

The Robed Choir has been an outstanding contributor to the musical programs during the school year.

Here they harmonize in a series of Christmas melodies before a filled auditorium.

GOOD VIBRATIONS!

Under the able direction of Mr. Wangler, the band has soared to new musical heights. Highlighting this year's half time entertainment has been the famed M.S.U. "patterns in motion" performed to current popular songs. Dedication and cooperation have merited this success.

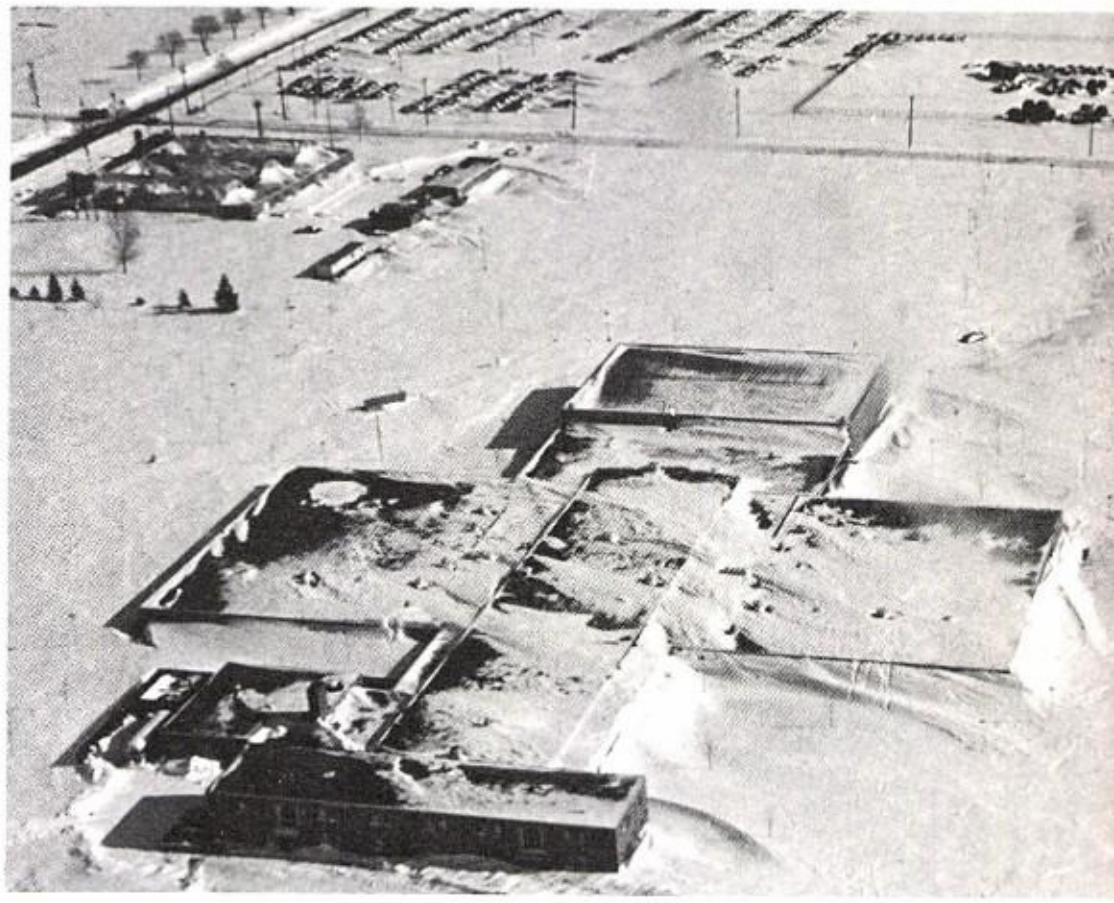
THE HANDS OF LEADERSHIP

At the semester break, Brother Athanasius was transferred to LaSalle Manor, Plano, Illinois where he will give boy's retreats. Brother came to Gabriels as it's first principal, four years ago, when the structure was newly built. He has given much of himself to us and in that same spirit, Brother Mark Lane came as new administrative head. Always ready to laugh, he makes you glad you've had the chance to meet him.

We welcomed to Gabriels, Brother Mark Lane, principal, and found him ready to welcome us and become a real part of our school.



The snows which swept the city January twenty-sixth, buried Gabriels in drifts, delaying the transfer and providing a weeks vacation.

Jim McKouen and John Mertz, with Brother Athanasius view the portrait presented to him by the Senior class at the farewell assemblies.

SODALITY SPONSORS MARDI GRAS

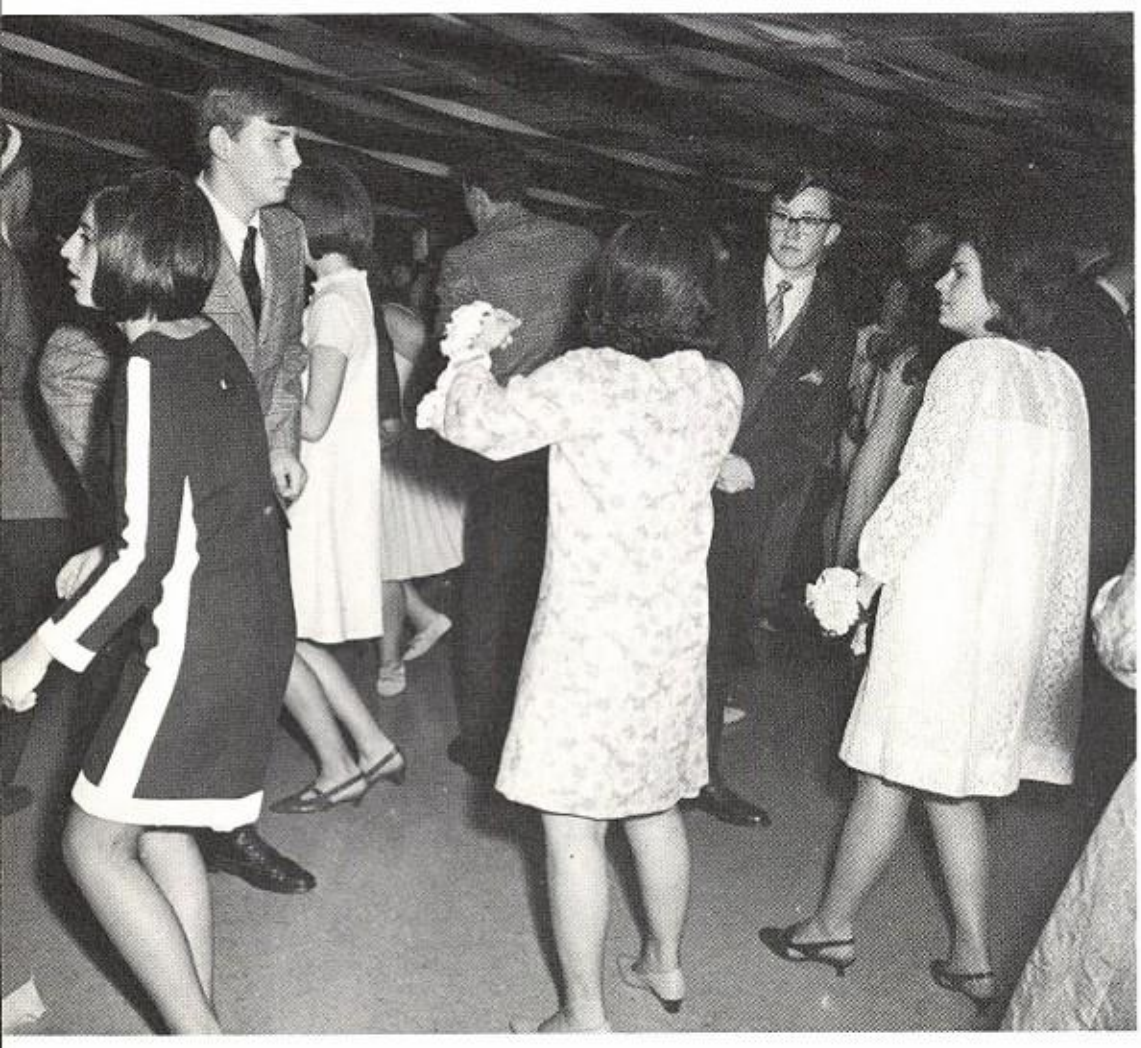
Enjoying the music and the festive decorations, the Sophomores dance to a lively tune from the Chancellors.



Sister Catherine Loyola, moderator of the Sodality, admires Queen Bobbi's crown shortly after the crowning.

The emphasis of this year's Sodality was placed on developing individual goodness. The Sodalists participated in such activities as the National Convention in Chicago, Ill., and the Judao-Christian Youth Rally in Detroit. The anticipation and suspense of the final crowning, and the festive decor, added glamor and excitement to the Sodality sponsored Mardi Gras Masquerade Dance of 1967.

A warm handshake from Brother Mark began the congratulations for King Jim and Queen Bobbie at the Dance of February 11.

Making arrangements for the dance are Sodality officers M. Hamlin, V.P.; S. Wargo, Sec; M. Harrington, Prefect. Absent is M. R. Verderese, Treas.

Amid festive decorations of giant polka-dot balloons, sparkling masks, twisted streamers and winding serpentines, the candidates, nominated for King and Queen by their classmates, stood in honor before all on one of the most memorable occasions.

"ONCE UPON A TIME"

Her Majesty, Jill Grace, was crowned by last years royalty, Ginger Spadafore, Tonya Danby bore the crown on a satin pillow as she saw her sister, Sandy, left, sharing special honors with Paula Burt, Sue Bator and Martha Harrington.

The 1966 Homecoming dance "Once Upon a Time" climaxed a thrilling afternoon of football, in which the mighty Shamrocks emerged Parochial City Championship title. Queen Jill Grace presided over the festivities and was attended by Paula Burt, Martha Harrington, Sue Bator, and Sandy Danby. The Bud Spangler Four maintained a mood of storybook enchantment as the dance provided a fitting ending for a perfect day.

The duty of the Pep Club is to generate spirit; build it when it's down and keep it growing through rallies, competitions and enthusiasm.

King Rocky, basketball team mascot created by Pep Club, makes his first of many appearances at the pre-O'Rafferty game pep rally.

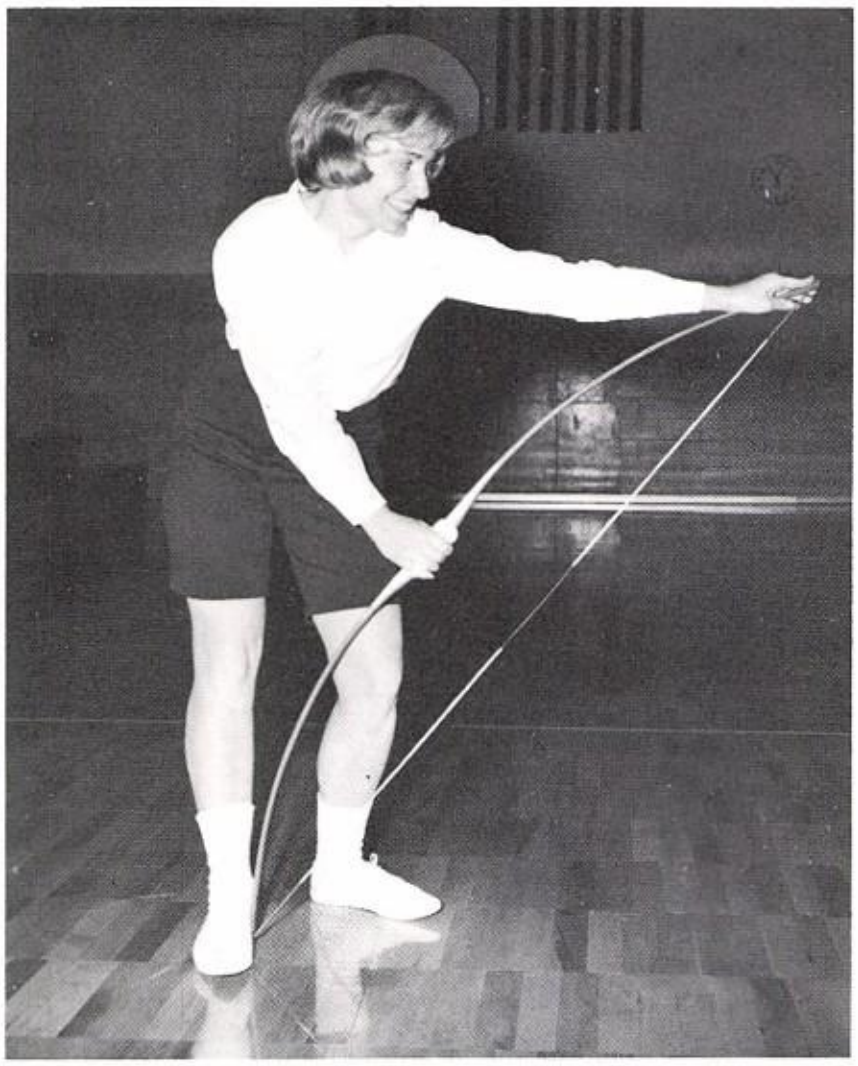
A PEP CLUB'S "GO"!!

Officers, right to left, are Pres. J. Grace, Sec. M. Labioda, Vice-Pres. A. Schafer, Tres. M. Lepczyk, Junior rep. M. Garrison, S. Wargo.

A little competition never hurt anyone, least of all the spirit of the Pep Club. Each weekly challenge spurs on friendly class rivalry through class and sign competition. The members provide the leadership needed to support our athletic endeavors. This year the club sponsored the annual Homecoming "Breakfast of Champion."

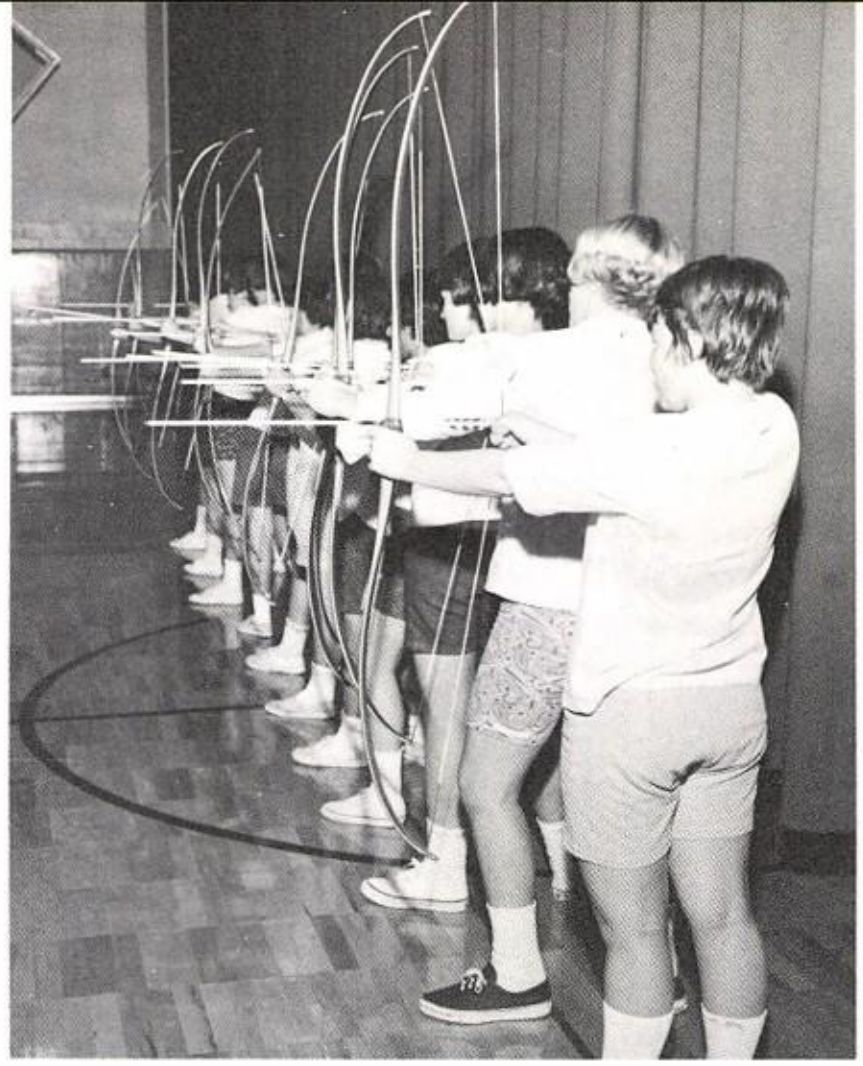
At his first Gabriel pep rally Bro. Mark presents the Spirit Trophy to Junior Pres. B. Gaybrick, winners of skit competition.

STRONG IN MIND AND BODY



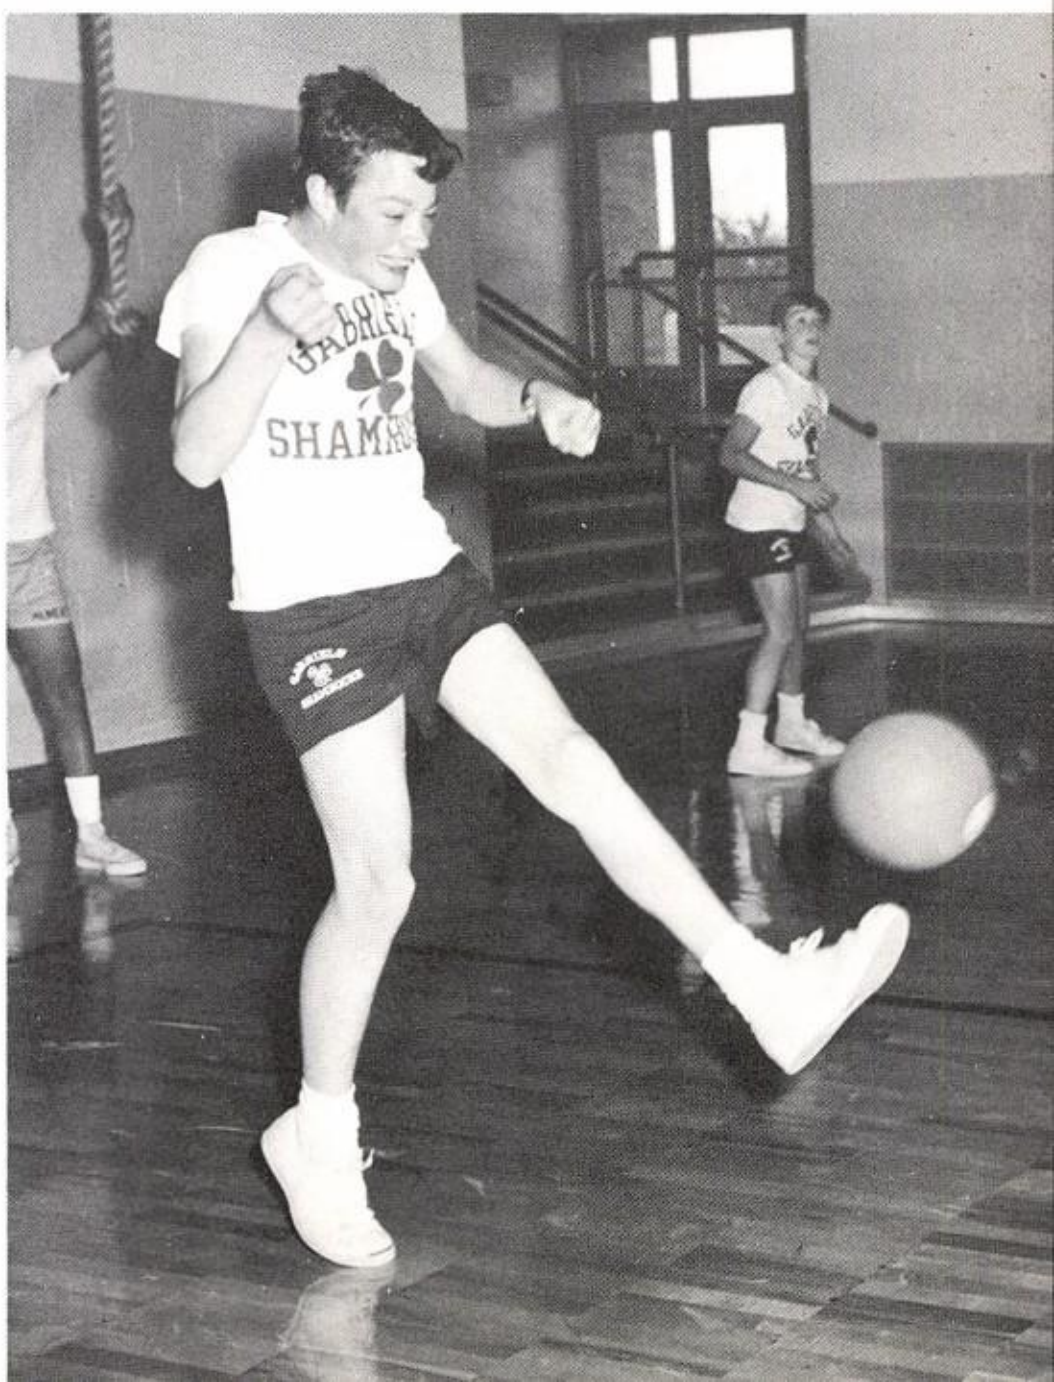
Mrs. Reed, Physical education teacher and Pep Club advisor, has given her students the desire to develop good sportsmanship.

"Pegging the Wall" requires strength and stamina. Gino Baldino and Nick Pavona demonstrate this difficult exercise.



Ready! Aim! Fire! This is a practice session of archery, a sport known for precision and of course, accuracy.

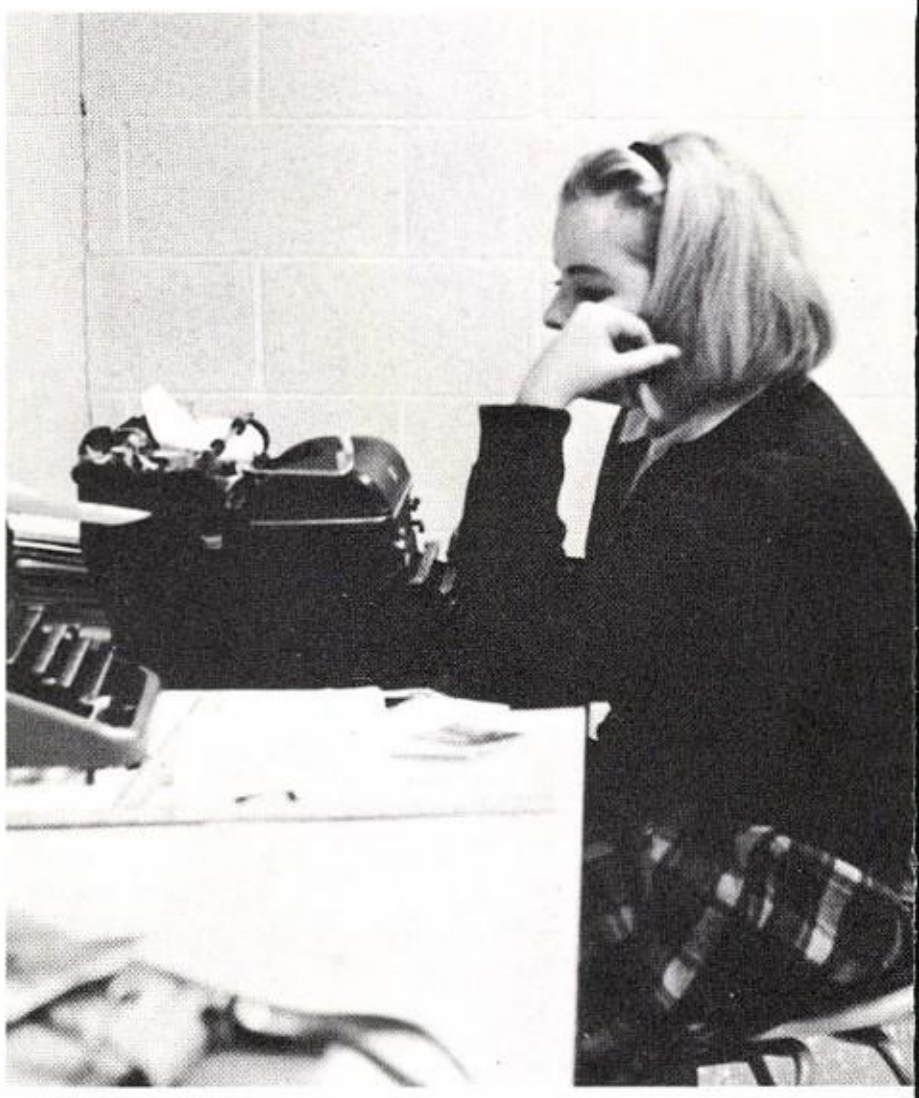
Gym classes have been very active for Freshmen, who have participated in such intramural sports as basketball, and kick ball.



THE TRUMPET SOUNDS

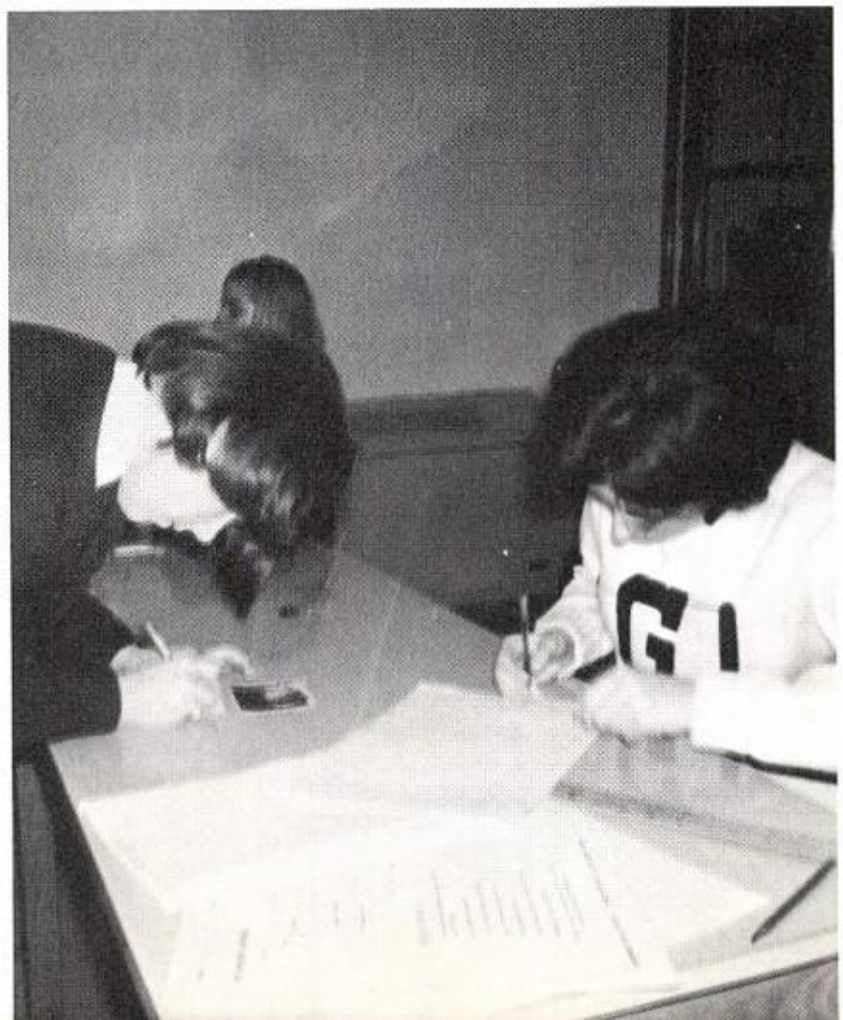
A yearbook is a very special thing, for it can let you sit down today and hold yesterday in your hands. If you can look through these pages and feel the spirit of Gabriels; if you can sense a specialness, then we can be proud. This year was one you will never live again; this year was unique. The events will remain much the same for years to come; the classes, the dances and the games, but the faces will change and the people and their personalities will make it all new again. So we hope the pieces of this year pictured in this publication hold for you some of those times that you never want to forget, the moments you want to live forever.

Mrs. Hart, head of the business department, was our faculty advisor for yearbook, giving so much of her time and being the greatest help.



Janet Corcoran and her staff of writers came through on each successive deadline even when the mood wasn't inspirational.

Mary Beth Lepczyk and Ann Schafer managed the senior section and are here making final adjustments on candids layout.



EXTRA-CURRICULAR INVOLVEMENT

Dances at Gabriels are frequent and well-attended by members of all classes. The above dance was our annual Mardi Gras.

One of the most active of clubs, the J.C.L. sponsored a Classical Spring, attended by over seven hundred students from the surrounding area and announced by Mayor Max Murningham.

Though lack of space made it impossible to capture all those times spent in labor and in fun, the summation of all the activities at Gabriels would be giving. The sincerity and simple dedication to the things we believe in and support are unforgettable.

The Gleeman performed many times to a responsive audience and at Christmas, Santa, alias Charlie Spadafore, made a big hit.

The shovel-out was a real step toward unity, for members of all classes pitched in and join in a hootenany after.

B. Hulinek and M. Neal with the class officers and organization heads represented the class of 67 when Father Sears blessed their rings at the Offertory Mass on Ring Day.

BEGIN THE BEGINNING

The traditional Ring Day ceremony marked the beginning of the beginning for the Senior Class of '67. The student body witnessed the dramatic presentation of the class rings to the Seniors at a solemn high Mass. The ring, an infinite circle, and visible symbol of class unity, established a permanent identity upon each Senior Class member.

Following the ceremony, the Sophomores honored the Seniors with a breakfast. After the feast, the Seniors exchanged their impressive attire for sweat shirts and "tenny bops" and proceeded to Francis Park. The free afternoon was the setting for an impromtu football game where the girls had an opportunity to challenge the boys. The outcome of this "meeting of the brawn" was never determined, but all had a good time. To demonstrate the dynamic spirit of '67, everyone returned to school for "a super colossal" pep assembly.

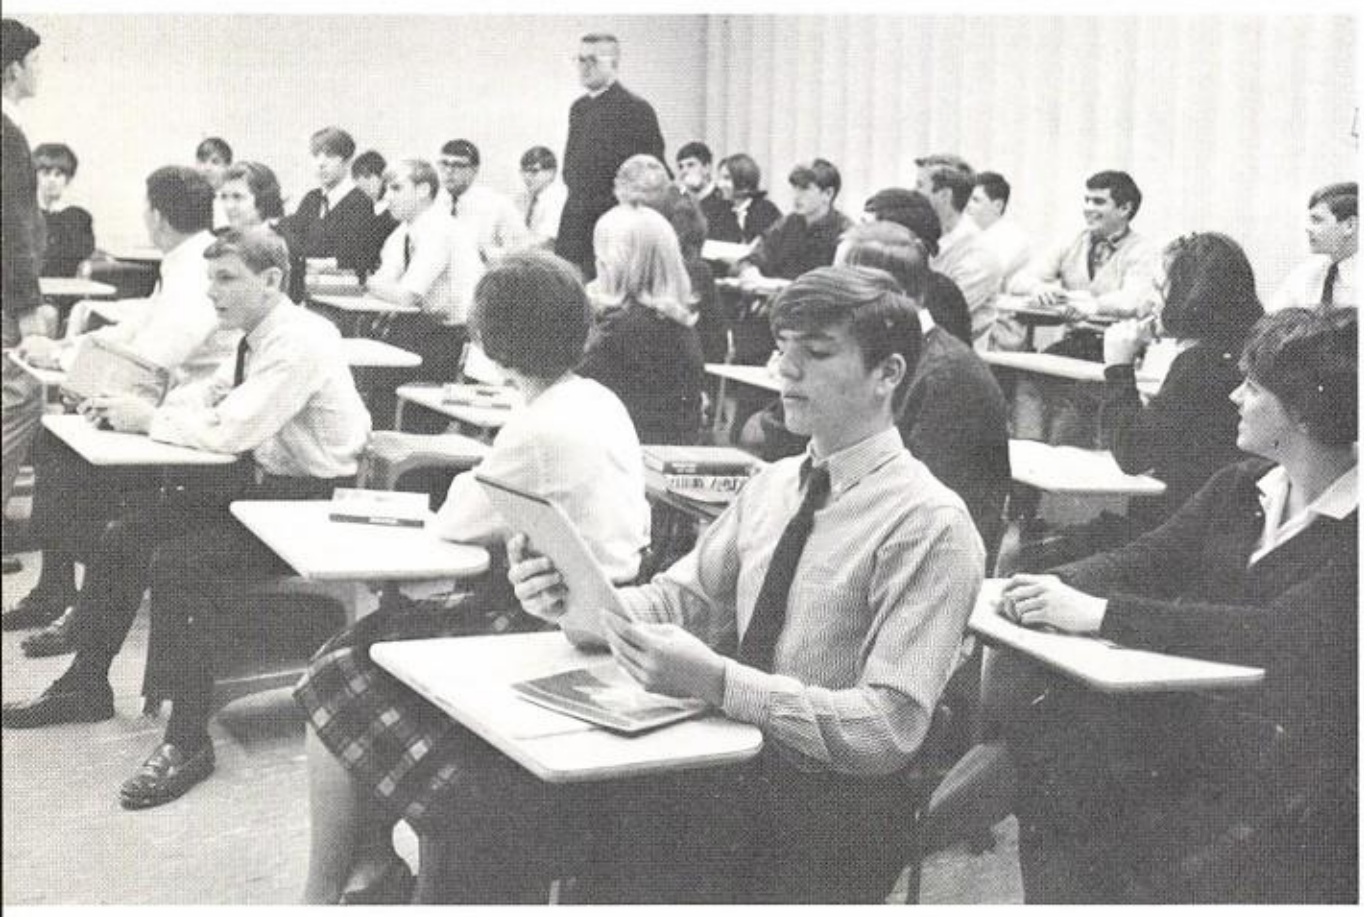
THE BEST TIMES OF A GREAT



SENIOR YEAR!

This is the Senior, a part not often seen unless the eye is quick. Caught in the act of being themselves, these pictures candidly portray what words fail to describe. Unrehearsed, unassuming, the Seniors found simple pleasure in those after school hours, when friendships were renewed, and time was never wasted. United as a group on a class ski trip, or on a person to person basis, the good times remembered will always be seen in the eyes of a Senior.

ATHLETICS—A GREAT YEAR FOR THE ROCKS!

FOOTBALL—ANOTHER WINNING

Winning football teams are a tradition at Gabriels, and this year's team was no exception. The team's potential, guided by excellent coaches and backed by the enthusiastic student body, matured to produce six wins against only two losses for the year. The most significant thing about the '66 Rocks was not their offense or defense, their ability to run or throw, but the pride the players had in themselves and in the team. This intense pride was demonstrated all year. For example, the last munute win over Grand Ledge, and the came from behind victory over Mason. The most graphic display of the team's pride, however, came not in victory but in defeat, the Okemos game. Our team fought gallantly only to lose in the last seconds 7-6.

The success of any team at Gabriels is measured by its performance against the O'Rafferty Raiders. By this standard we were a huge success for we delt the West-Side Raiders a 19-0 defeat. This victory made it our fifth in a row. With this win over O'Rafferty we retained possession of the Joseph H. Albers trophy which as resided here since its initiation three years ago.

J.V.'S POST A 5 – 2 RECORD

This year's Junior Varsity concentrated on quality, not quantity. In Coach Greenwood's second year at Gabriels his team posted a very fine 5 and 2 record. Mr. Lardner, the line coach, was a new addition to the team. Mr. Greenwood said that the backfield's speed was the most important factor in the team's success.

FROSH PROVE UNBEATABLE

A Freshman football team is a strange thing, it is made up of thirty or so boys, who most of which have never played football before. Mr. Sanbaer, our freshman coach for the past three years, always works miracles with the team. Over the years he has been at Gabriels Mr. Sanbaer has an overall record of 15 wins and only 3 losses. Last year Coach Sanbaer missed an undefeated season by seconds at O'Rafferty, but this year he was successful. The freshmen won all six of their games.

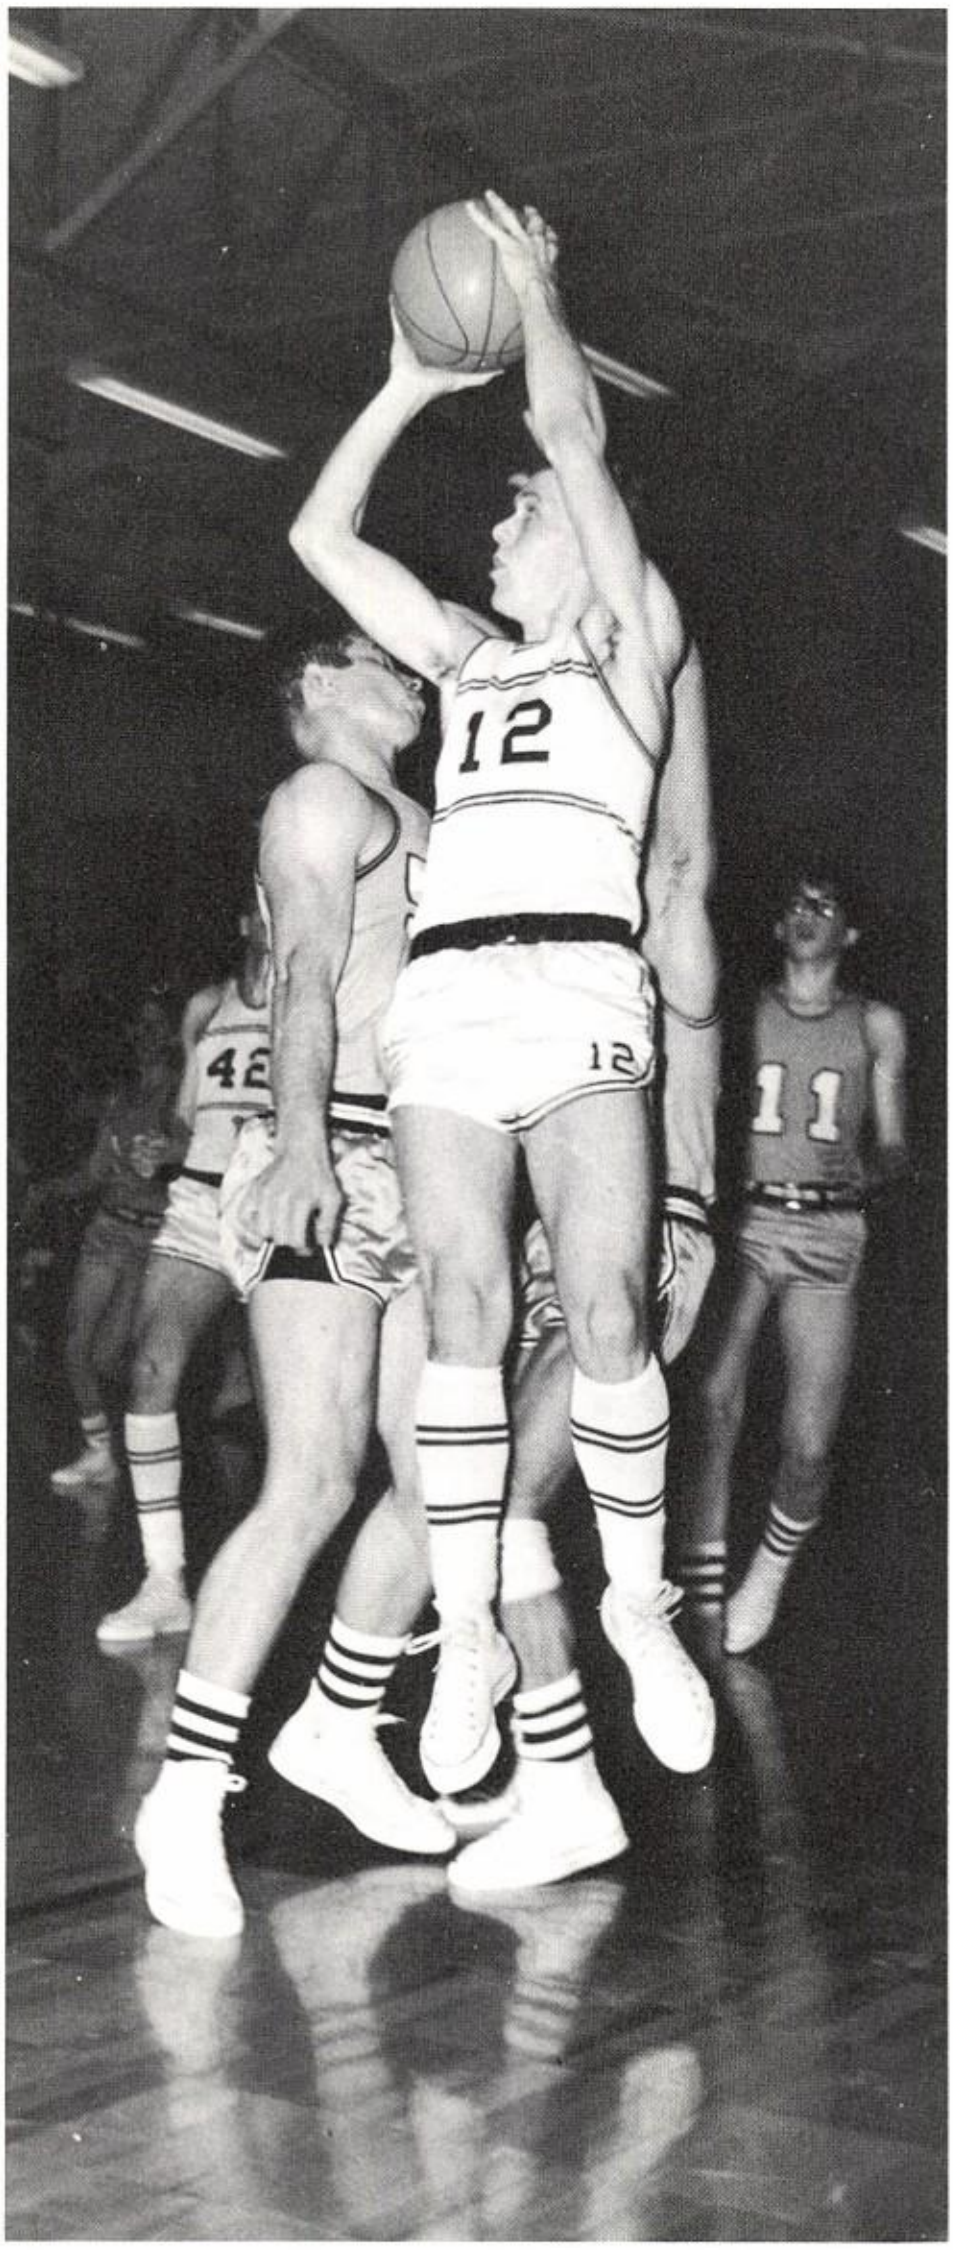
THE ROCKS CAME ROLLING IN!

This year the Shamrock's basketball team attained a degree of success unmatched in the history of Gabriels and Resurrection. Their record of fifteen wins and only two losses for regular season play has never been achieved before. The only losses came at the hands of State-ranked O'Rafferty.

For the last three years the Shamrocks have been led by seniors Steve Nowosacki, Jeff Larkin, and Jim Fewless. Jeff has led the team with a total of 925 points, Steve has had 787, and Jim 361 for their three years.

Jim Fewless prepares to drive for a lay-up against Waverly. For the last three years Jim has started for the Shamrocks.



Jeff Larkin, all-City guard, hits for another two points against Waverly. This was the second straight year that Jeff was chosen as all-City.

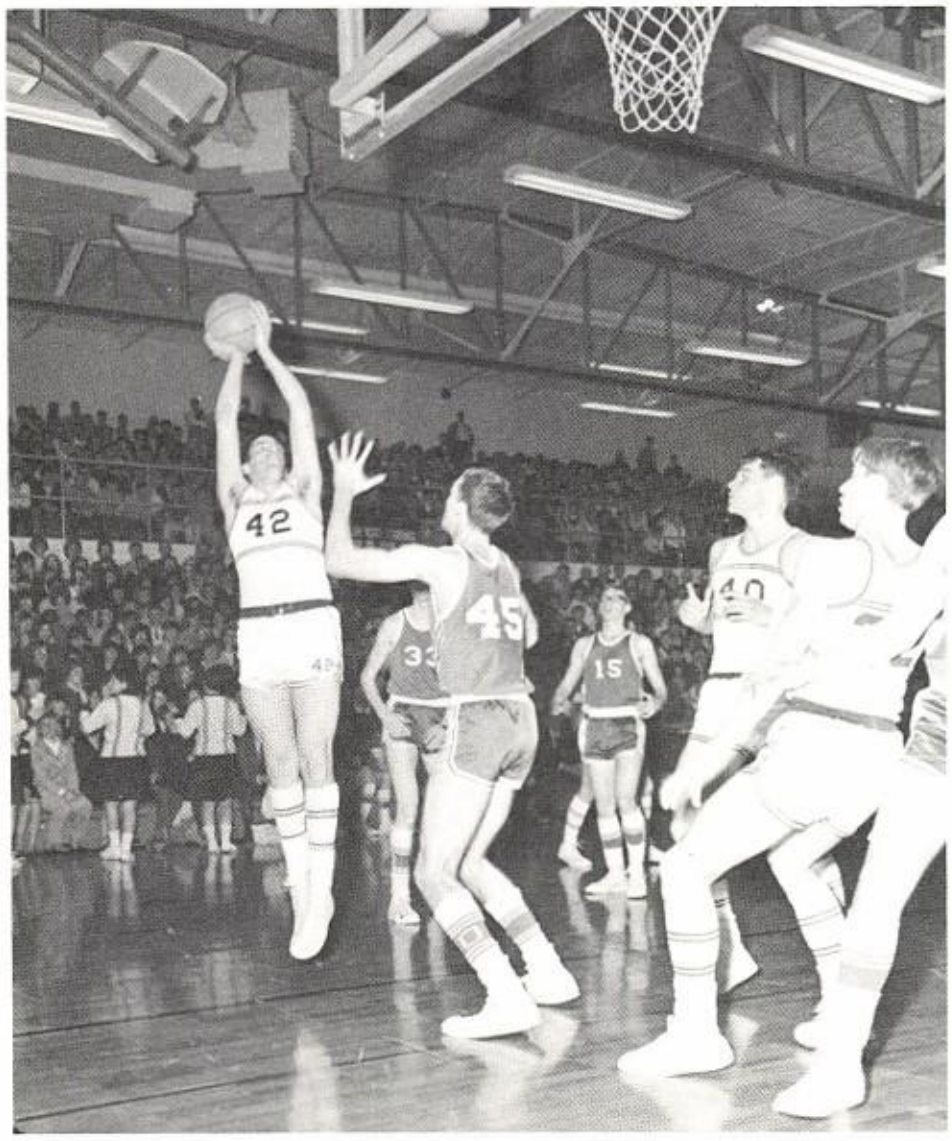
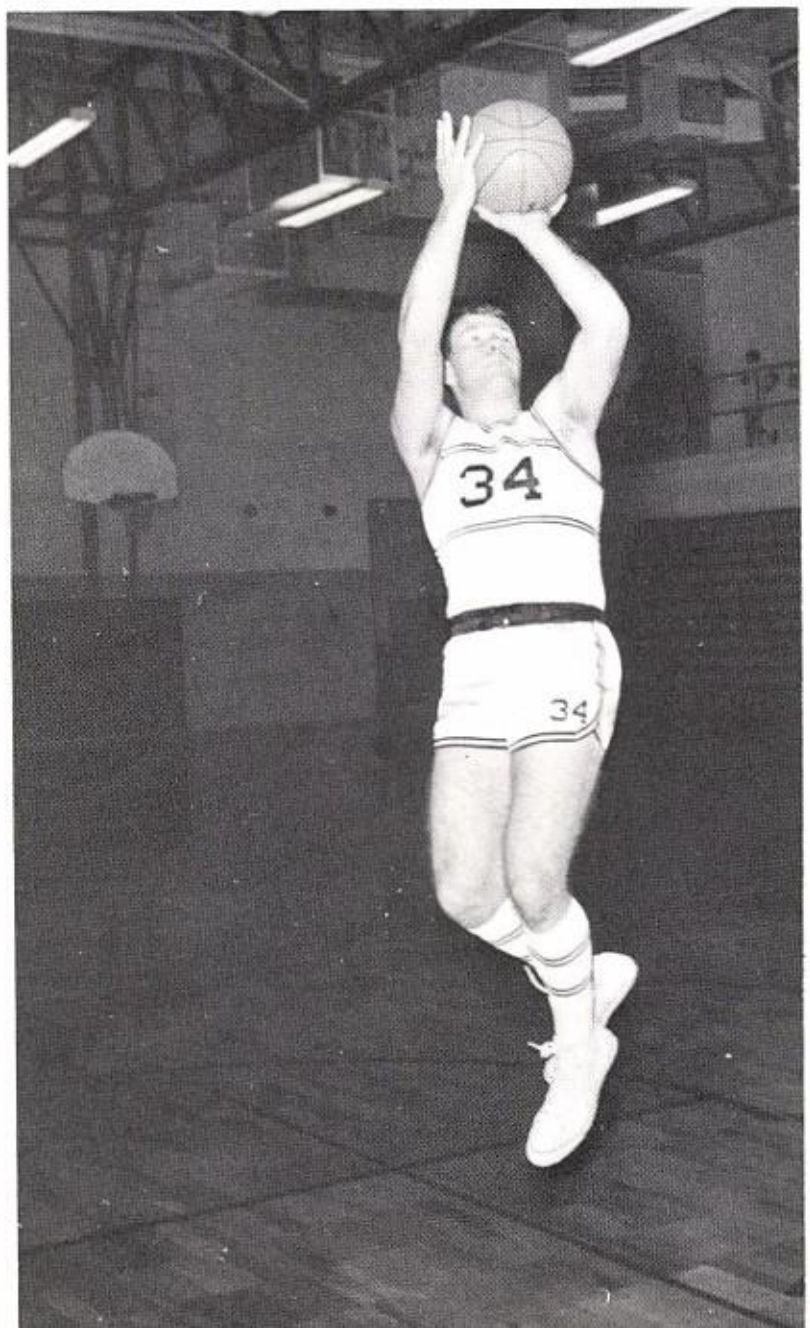
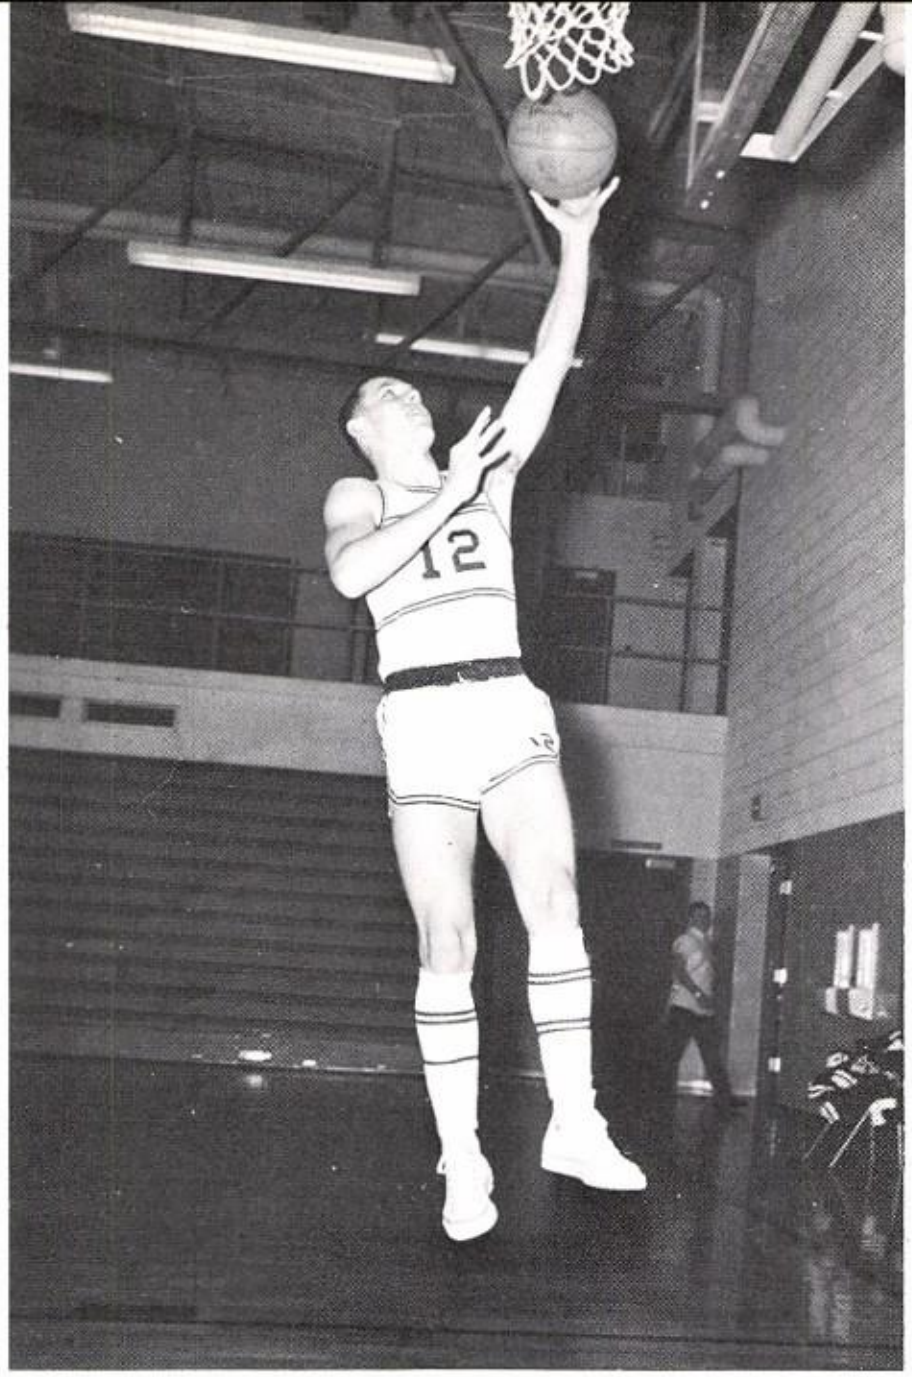
Steve Nowosacki demonstrates the form that won him all-City honors this year as he executes a jump shot against O'Rafferty.



Jim Fewless started for the third year in a row for the Shamrocks this season. Jim has a total of 361 points for his career at Gabriels.

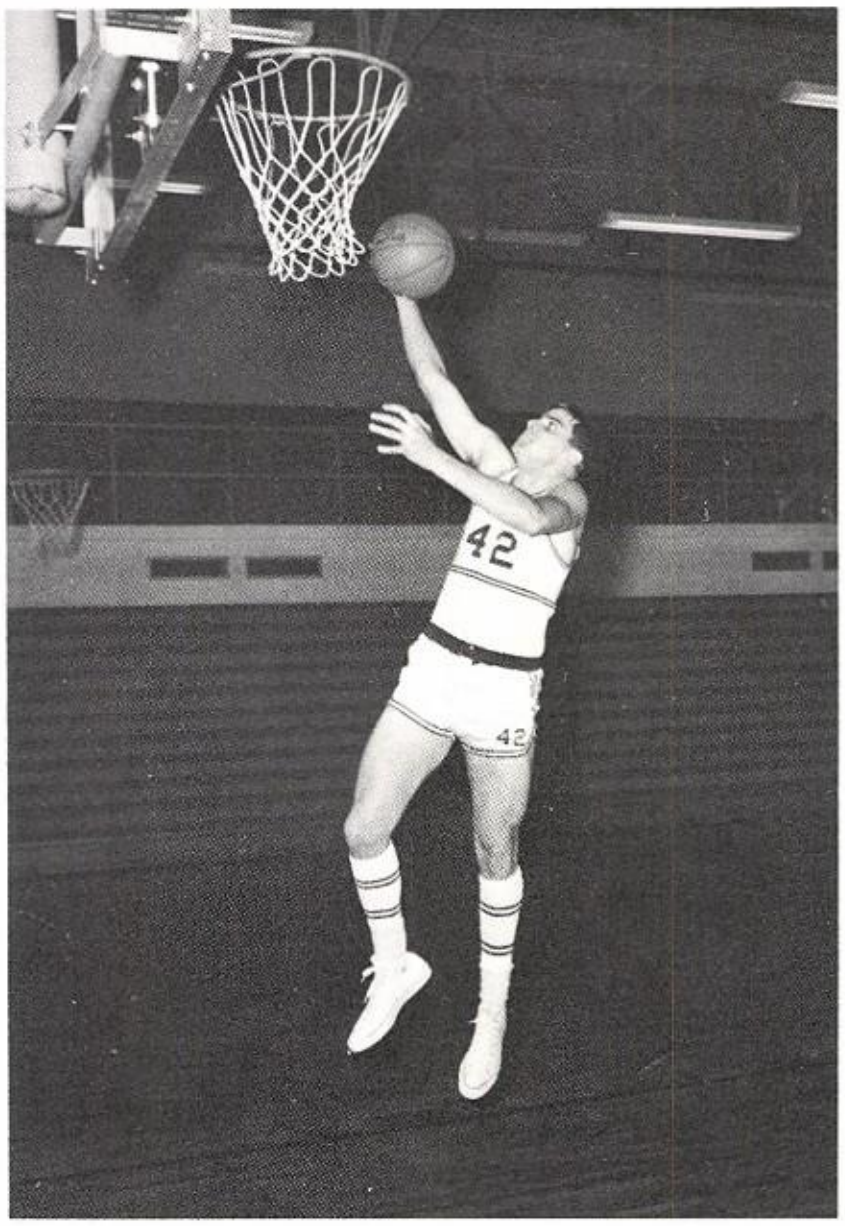




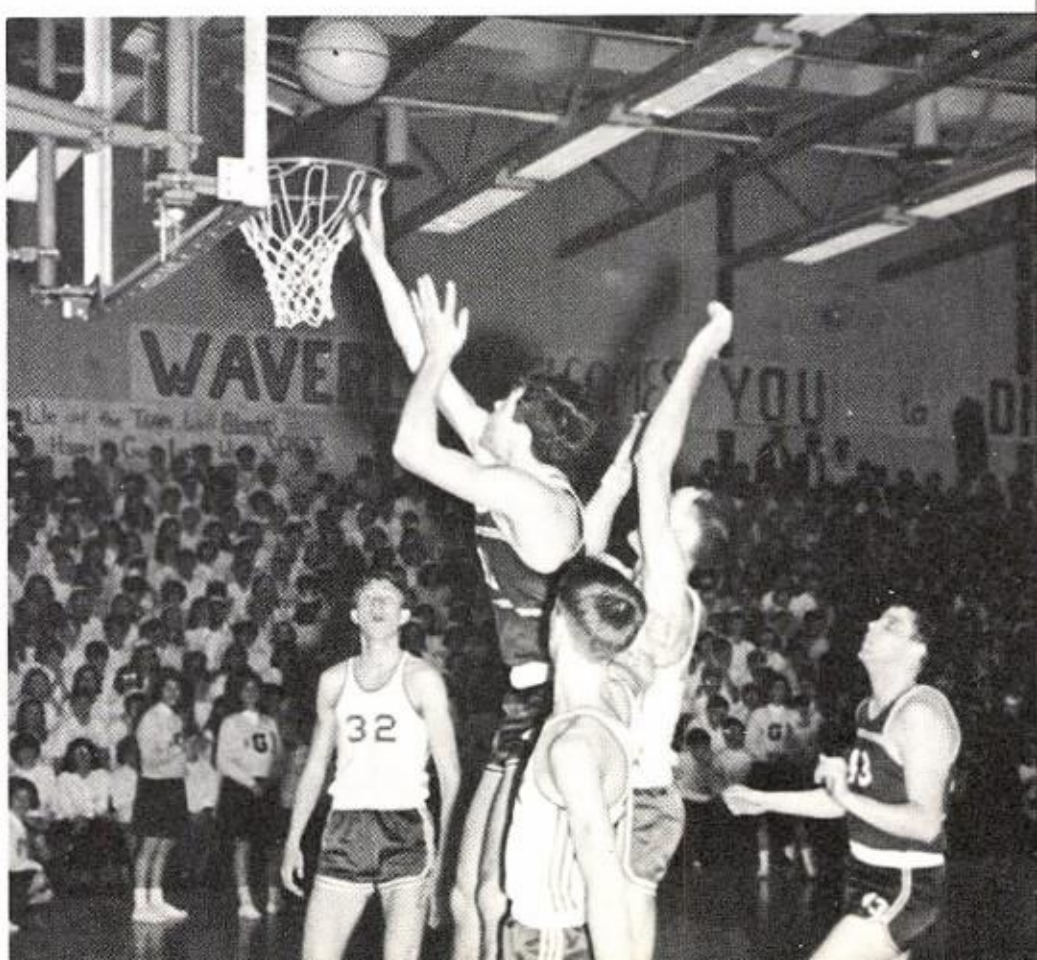
Jim Fewless, Tim Curtin, Jeff Larkin, Steve Nowosacki, and John Parker lead the Shamrocks to their most successful season.

Jeff Larkin was again chosen as all-City guard this year. Jeff has led the team in assists and total points for three years.

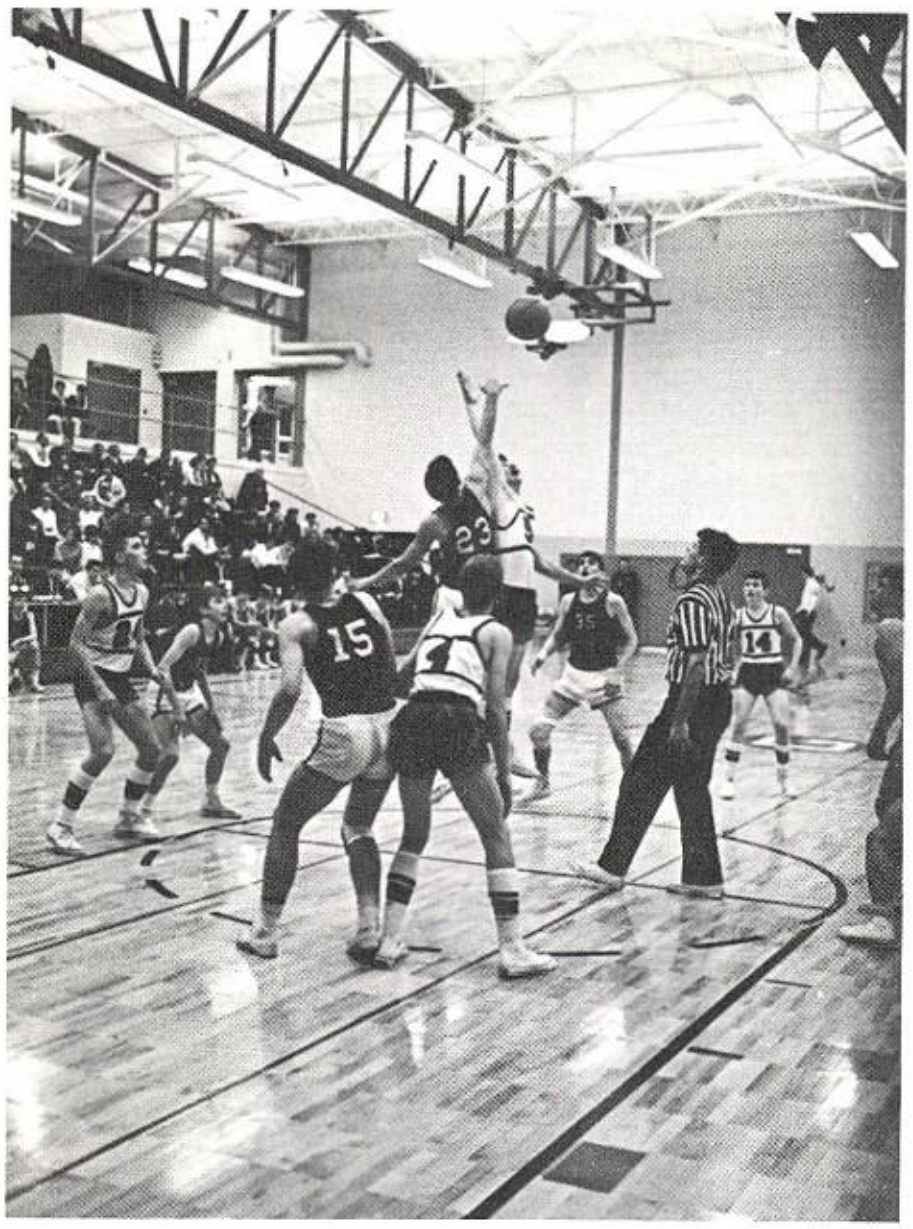
This year Steve Nowosacki was chosen as all-City center. Steve has broken all records at Gabriels for rebounding.



John Parker got an easy two points against O'Rafferty during the tournament game. The Rocks lost 39 to 83.



ROCKS J.V.'S TAKE 13 WINS



Steve Holland goes high to capture a jump ball against Waverly, in a 71-58 victory.

Coach Sambaer in his third year at Gabriels directed the JV's to a 13 and 4 season. The JV's were led by Gino Baldino, Mike Spadafore, Steve Holland, Don McRae, and Paul Peterson. The reserve team showed real good material and promises to be an asset to next year's Varsity.

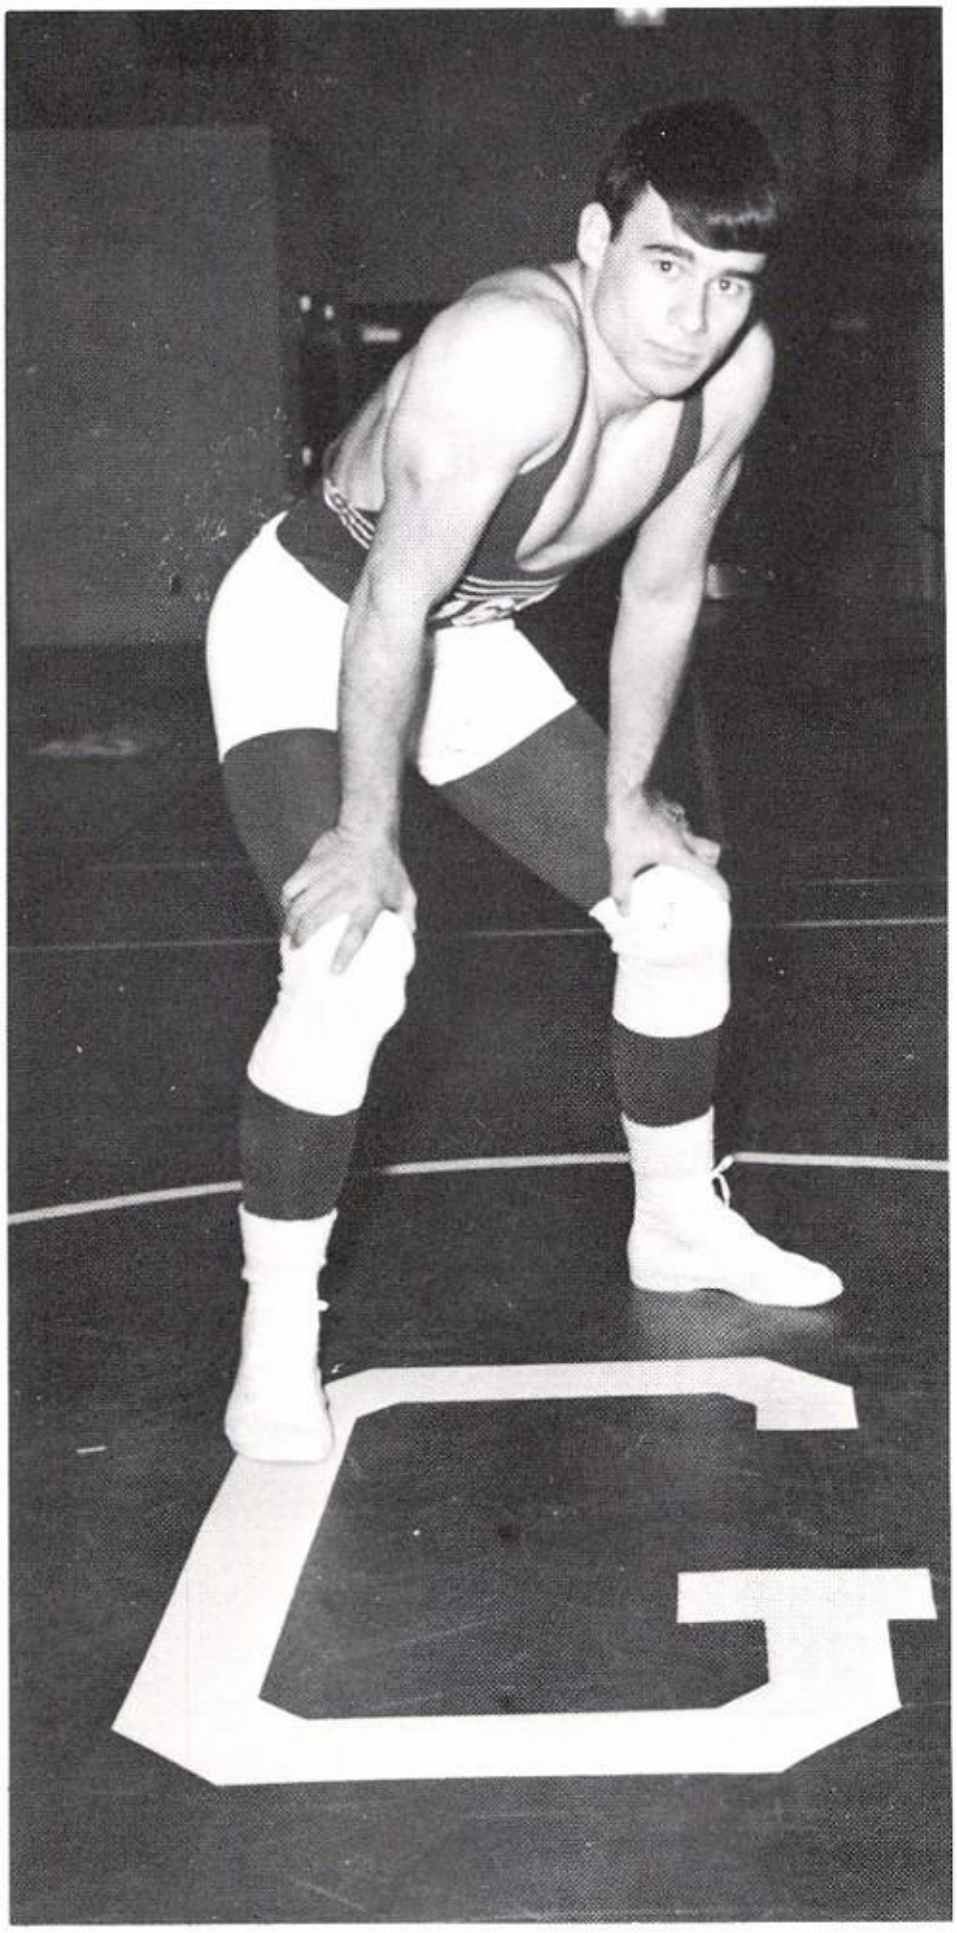
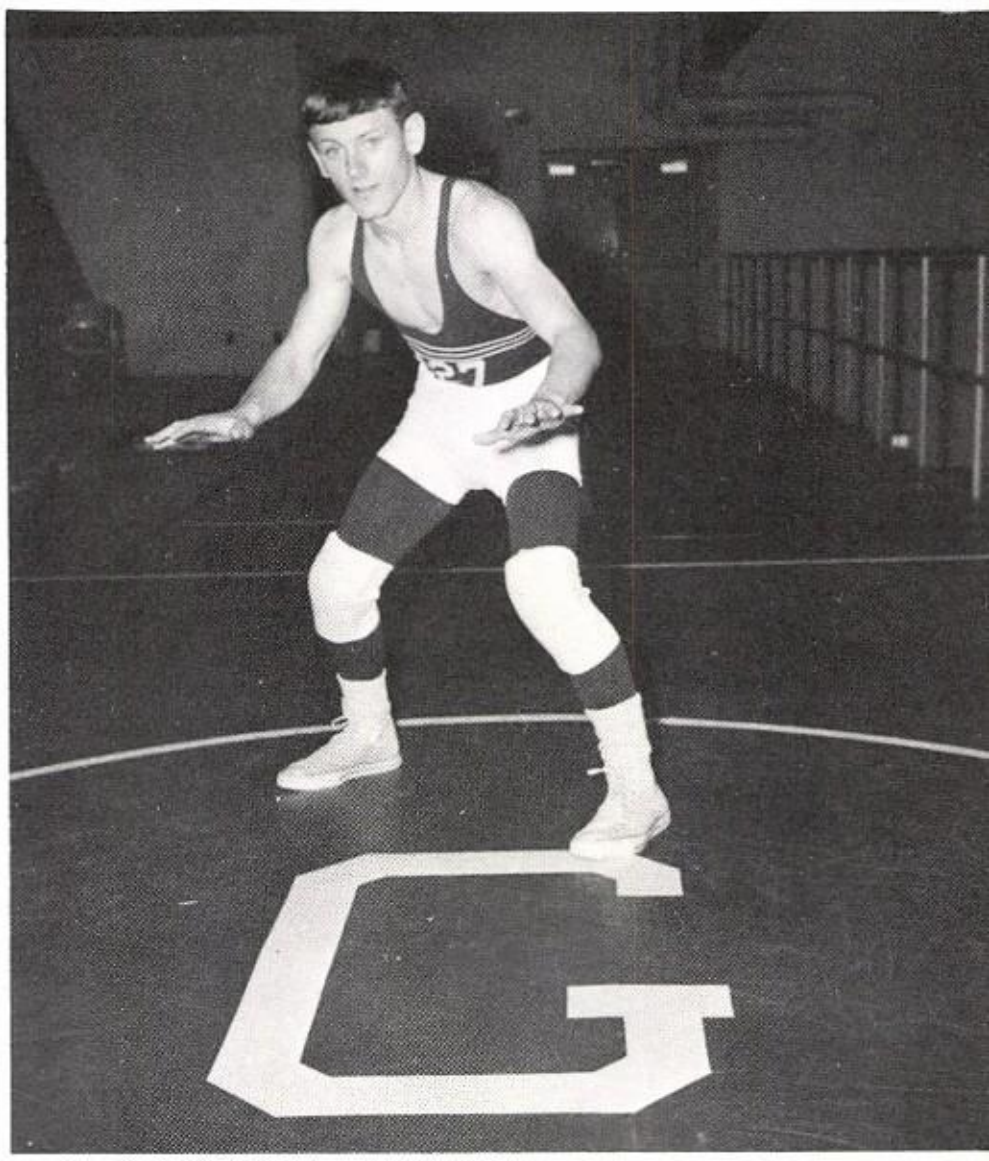
The wrestlers, in only their second year of competition, gained a surprising degree of success. They finished fourth in the regionals at Parma, and sixteenth at the state finals. One of the highlights of the season was their victory over Okemos the defending State Champions. Tom Eiden and Tim Yungfer both took first places in the league. Mike Panetta took a second, Steve Bauer and Tom Boucher took third places, and Matt Wisniewski took a fourth. Tom Eiden and Mike Panetta both advanced to the State finals at Waverly. Tom took a second place in the Heavyweight division.

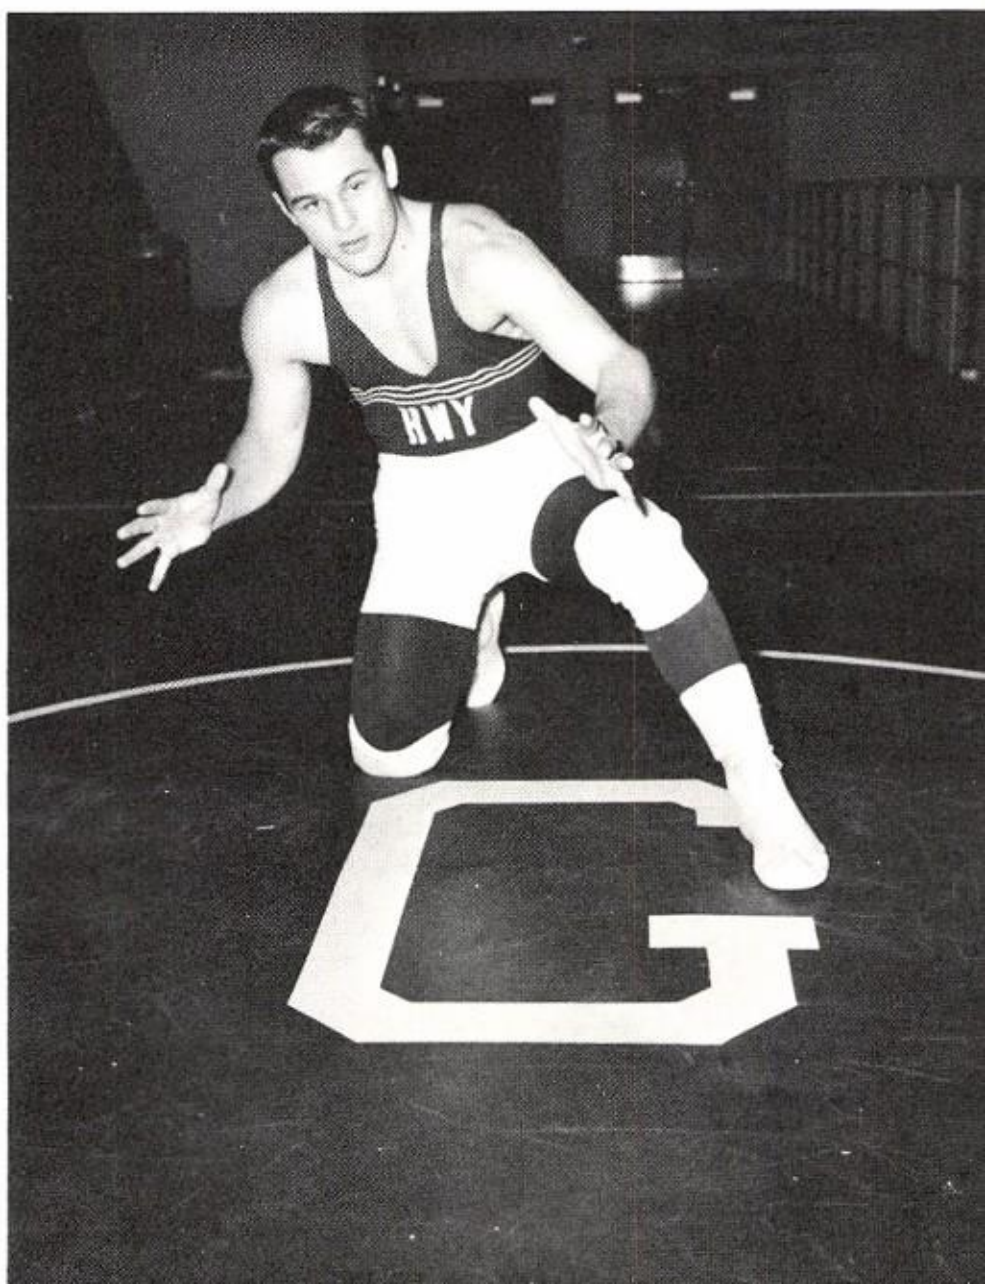


Tim Yungfer who wrestled at 165 was one of the teams best wrestlers. He won the league title and finished fourth in the regional at Parma.

Senior Tom Eiden led the team in victories this year with a 20 and 1 record. He won the league title, the regional title and finished second in the state.

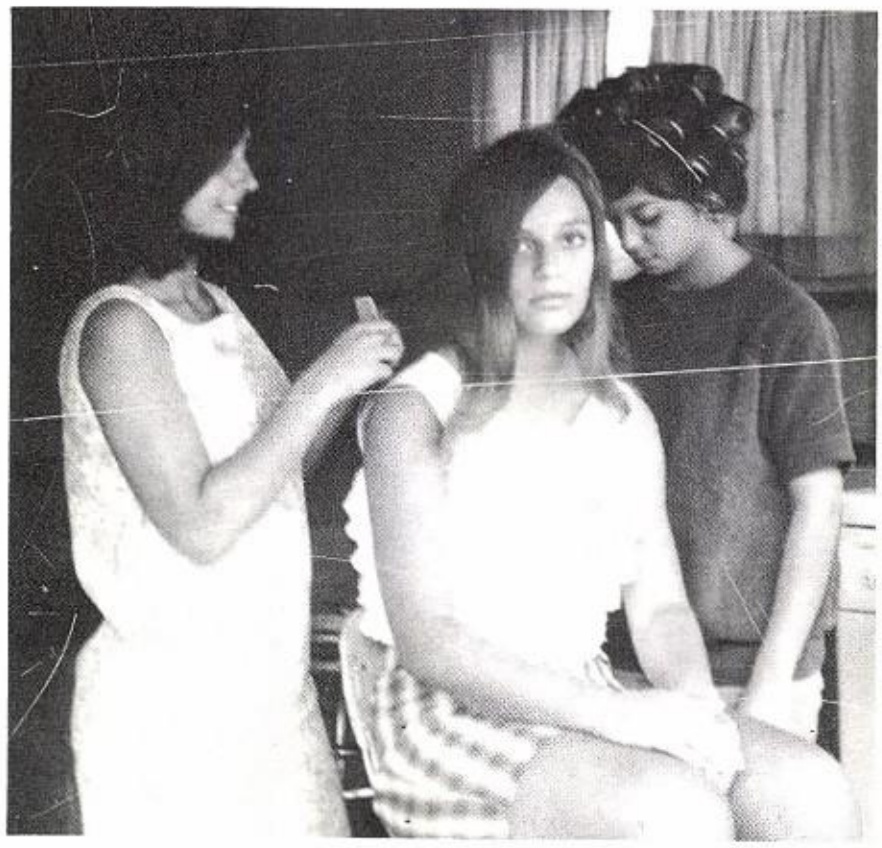


Joe Clevenger, a senior this year, wrestled at the 127 weight class. Joe had one of the best records on the team.



THUNDERATION!!

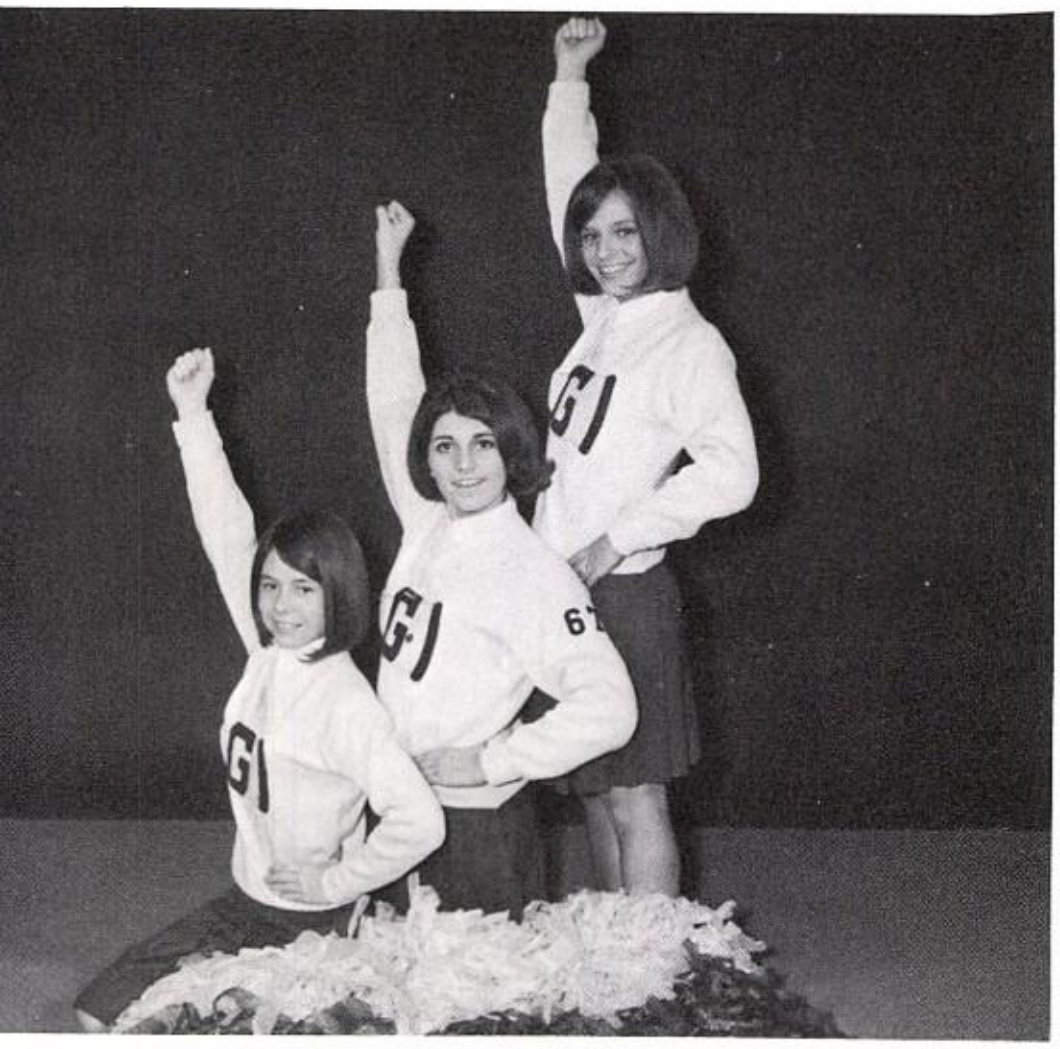
The 1966-67 Varsity Cheerleaders are, bottom row: Bobbi Marker, Rose DeMarco, Ann Schafer, and Rose Sinicropi; center: Linda DeRose and back: Miki Kirker and Debbie Bridges. Mrs. Nancy Watters deserves much credit and thanks for their outstanding performances.



A solemn occasion: Cathy Magistro cuts Miki Kirker's long hair to the required length as Rose DeMarco looks on.

These smiling cheerleaders are Senior Captain Rose DeMarco and Co-captain Debbie Bridges.

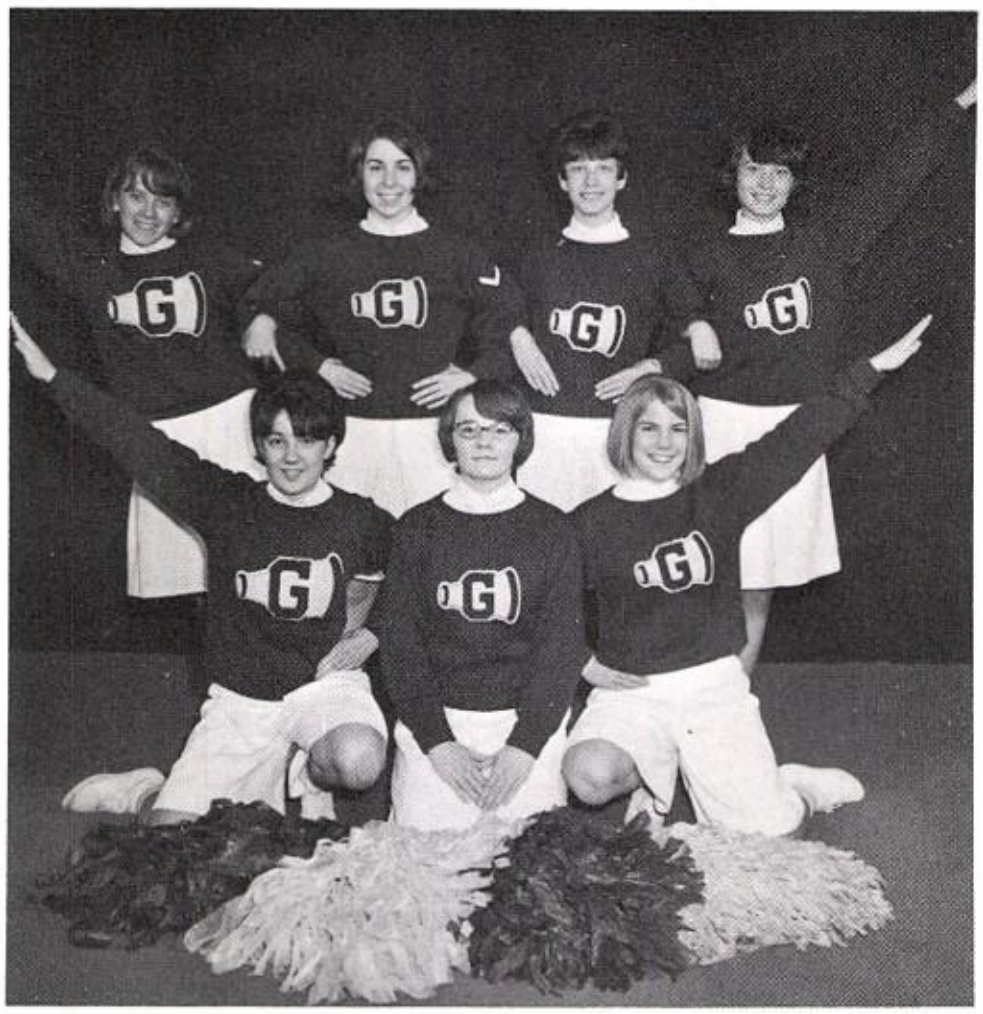
These two enthusiastic cheerleaders, Ann Schafer and Rose Sinicropi represent the great spirit of '67.



Highly spirited and excitable are Junior Cheerleaders Miki Kirker, Linda De Rose, and Bobbi Marker.

The cheerleaders were determined that neither mud nor snow could dampen Gabrielite spirit.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are, top row: Sue Hand, Mary Jo Milam, Marg Garrison, Karen Roblee; Bottom row: Irma Vogt, Theresa Hallett, Lisa Burt. Many thanks to Mrs. Bonnie Ambrustmacher, coach.



Demonstrating sophomore spirit are Junior Varsity Captain Irma Vogt and Co-Captain Lisa Burt.

TO GROW, TO LOVE, TO REMEMBER

JUNIORS EXCEL

Each year brings with it the promise of another year to come. In anticipation of the future, the task of succeeding the position of leadership is already begun through the determination of the junior class. They have gained new confidence from achievement and wisdom from experience. With three years behind them, the juniors are ready to assume the title of seniors.

Junior officers: G. Murphy, Tres.; L. Dionese, V. Pres.; B. Gaybrick, Pres.; N. Tschirhart, Sec.; M. Peterson and M. McBride, Soc. Chrmn.

A UNIQUE AND ACTIVE CLASS

The juniors began the new year with a dance reminiscent of old song appropriately entitled "Leaves of the Past." Soon after this success, the spirited juniors celebrated with an old-fashioned hayride. Despite a tie for third place, the juniors' float, "Banking on a Victory," deserves recognition. The rest of the year was devoted to preparing for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. This event in honor of the Seniors is a tribute to the harmonious relationship between the upperclassmen.

SOPHOMORES RADIATE ENTHUSIASM

Emerging forth from the shell of a freshman, the sophomores have invaded the Gabriel scene. They have surpassed their second year ambitions with their successful endeavors. New enthusiasm and spirit for school activities can be identified with the magnitism of this class. The officers of this class are Soc. Chrmn, P. Mertz and M. Magistro; Treas.; T. McKenna; Pres. S. Seely; V. Pres., T. Rosetti; and Sec., J. DeMarco. No doubt this class will continue to be a definite influence in future years.

SATISFACTION IS SUCCESS

The sophomores acknowledged the Senior Class by hosting a breakfast contributing to the festivities of Ring Day. They were also the sponsors of a Halloween dance bearing the imaginative theme of "The Pit and the Pendulum." Featured were the popular singing group, "The Poor Souls." The spirit projected by the sophomore class was exemplified in this year's float, "Rocks are Rolling Strong." They are looking forward to another year of success.

HEY! LOOK US OVER

Getting acquainted at Gabriels began with a night of introduction for the freshmen. An insight into the various activities, followed by a dance, was provided by the student council in honor of these newcomers. From that point on, the class of '70 adjusted to their schedules and eventually the new became routine. A fine example of freshmen ingenuity was their float, "Raiders Sing the Blues," which placed second in competition. With this noteworthy success rides the hope of future greatness at Gabriels.

Moments of surprise are the best to remember and Shelley Pabst didn't plan this one!

'67 SPRING SUPPLEMENT

The happenings from April to June of the school year 1967 here at Gabriels were really the best, especially for the Seniors. An inaugural ball was given to initiate Pres; Steve Secor: Vice-Pres; Steve Seely: Treas; Bob Wood: and Sec. Sue McCue, as the new student council officers.

And there will never be anything to beat "Senior Week." It belongs to the class of '67 of Gabriels and none will ever forget it. At left and below are some of the Seniors who made and had some of the laughs. Senior boys faced the camera as they mounted cycles at Silver Lake, scene of a class trip.

SOUTH PACIFIC

The stars of the 1967 production, "South Pacific" were Judy Wright as Nellie and Jon Tomlanovich as Emile.

Gabriels has built up a tradition of excellence in its musical productions and this year's "South Pacific" was widely acclaimed as the best yet. Under the direction of Brother Jeffrey and Ursula Klein the students came to really be the characters. Jill May was student director, assisting Brother. The mood was set, the curtains opened and audience and cast became one.

John McKenzie and Mike O'Neill give Bloody Mary, Maureen McBride, an assist as seabees watch the comic native give a show.

Nurses, Mary Palmiter, Dayrlann Ryan, Paula Burt, Jan Young, Mary Garrison, Jan Mayotte, Mary Char-

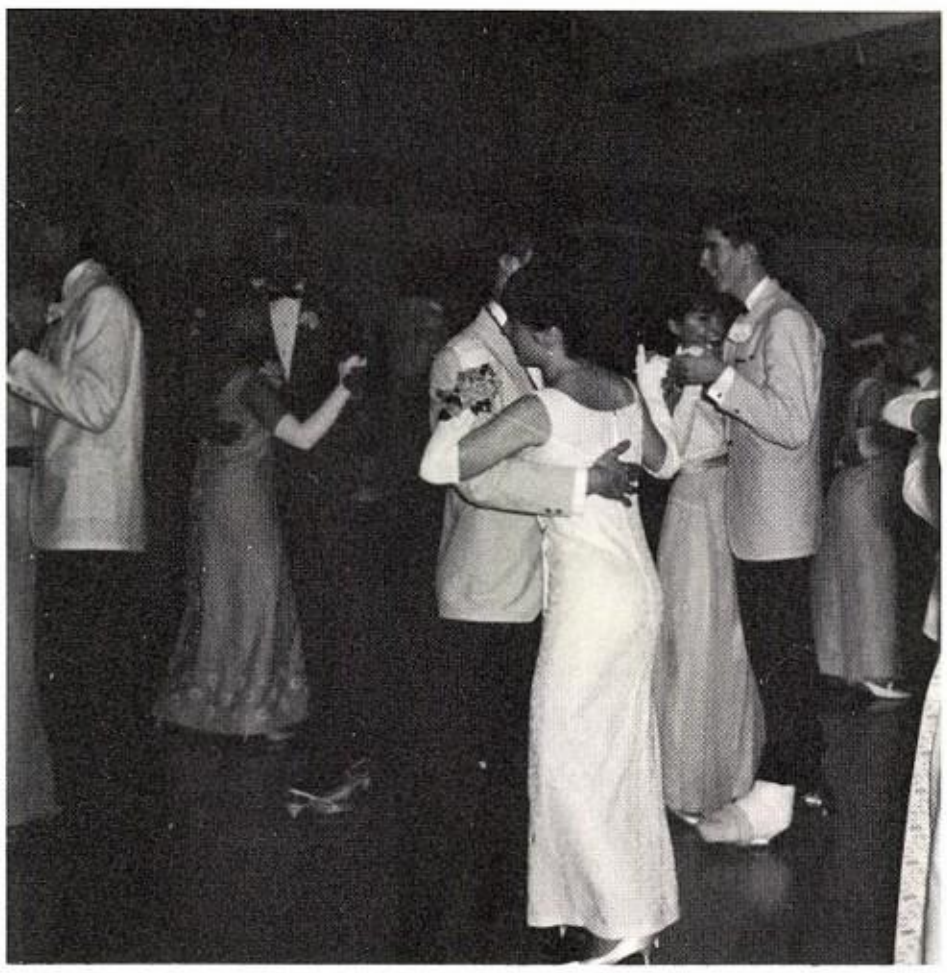
Lieut. Cable and Liat, Tim Yungfer and Julie Kotschevar, were in a love ended with sorrow at the death of young Cable.

"There is nothing like a dame!!", and these seabees say it with sincerity and enthusiasm in a dynamic scene.

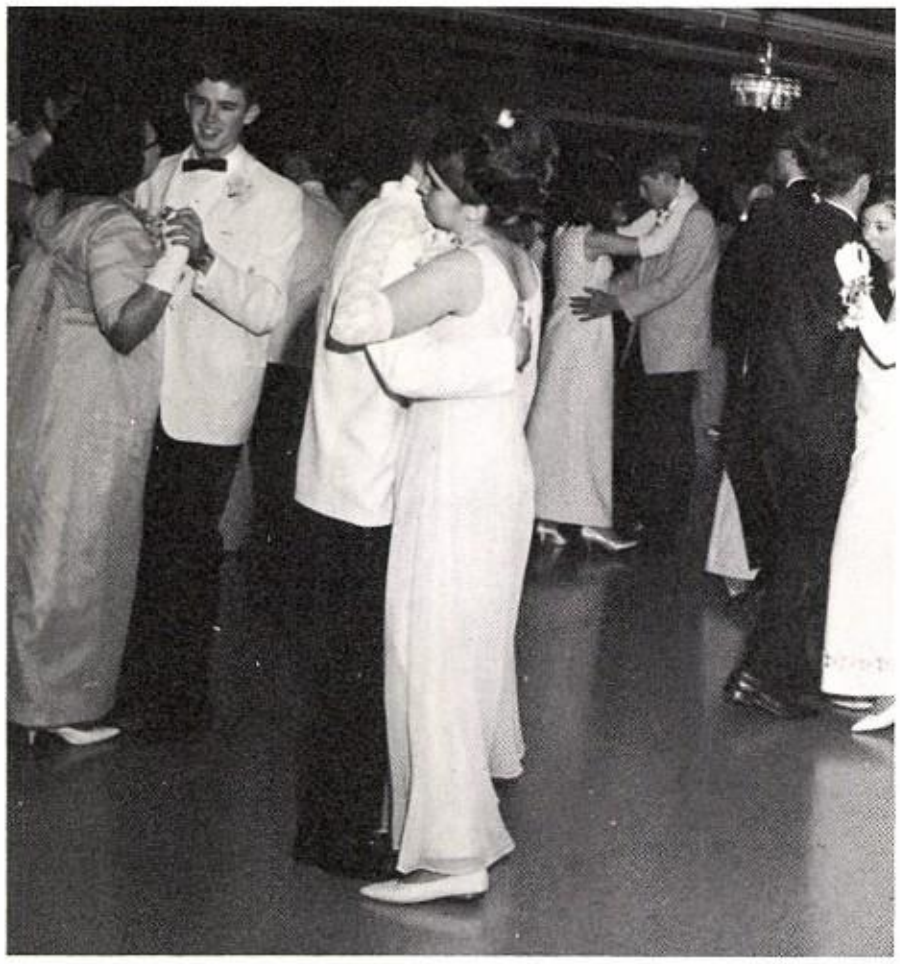
Tom Eiden, Ben Weeks and Charlie Spadafore were a team that gave the audience many laughs as troublesome sailors.

ette, and Nancy Tschirhart, stationed on the island, were out of uniform for Thanksgiving entertainment.

"My doll is as dainty as a sparrow . . . ?". Tom Eiden as Luther Billis teams up with Nellie in Honey Bun.



A MEMORY . . . GONE



WITH THE WIND . . .

"Gone With the Wind" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom which took place on May fifth. Set in a southern plantation with carriages, chandeliers, garden swings and parasols, the Plain Brown Wrappers played for an evening which was followed by an elegant dinner. Parties before and after and a day at Lake Michigan completed the affair.

TRACK

This year's track team was highlighted by the 880 relay team. They took third place in the State Regionals, thus winning an invitation to the State Finals. Denny Harney and Ray Baillargeon took fourth places in the Capital Circuit meet in the Broad Jump, and the 220 yard dash. The 880 relay team took a second place in the same meet.

Denny Harney and Ray Baillargeon demonstrate their smooth exchanges that beat O'Rafferty in the 880 yard relay.

Mike Murray strides past an O'Rafferty opponent in the opening leg of the mile relay. Mike Curl lunges to break the tape in the 100 yard dash.

Winning is a tradition at Gabriels and this year's baseball team was no exception. John Mulvaney won honors at the pitcher's mound as Coach John Greenwood worked with a great team. Many, including Coach Greenwood, participated in city and men's leagues, gaining recognition.

John Mulvany was named prep player of the year in the Greater Lansing Area. He had the best pitching record on the team.

Second Row; Steve Secor, Fred Montanze, Joe DeMarco, Jim DiVitri, Jack Vogal, Marc Buchko.

John, I'll never forget your immortal advice, "Practice that piano". Take it easy on the girls, with all your charm, luck + laughter to you always. Thanks for being such a friend, especially during South Pacific. With all my prayers Debbie '69

John,
Well, lets see...
always remember
, the wonderful times
there have been in E.L.
It really has been fun.
Maybe we can think of more brilliant things to do. Have fun this summer too (I know you will)
JANE

John,
You're really a doll (meaning a swell guy) and always will be that way. This has been a and fun year
next year I hope the same!
Hope to see this summer
Keep out of trouble!
Love
Kathy

John,
To a real duffer who has gotten out of playing me in weeks. But seriously, to a real nice guy even if he doesn't know how to golf.
Good Luck Dennie

John,
You're a great golfer and I would like another shot at you.
good luck, John
